

Lisa Anne Marchitelli

December 18, 1964 - February 2, 2012

Lisa Anne Marchitelli, age 47, of North Utica, passed away at the Faxton-St. Luke's Healthcare Center on Thursday, February 2, 2012. Her untimely passing occurred with her family by her side after she endured countless health concerns.

Lisa was born in Utica on December 18, 1964, the third daughter of Stephen P. and Arlene A. (Jones) Marchitelli. She appreciated growing up in a household where her family held pride in their Italian heritage. She was a graduate of T.R. Proctor High School in 1983.

An industrious and hard-working young lady, Lisa had been employed at the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. Over twenty years ago, she accepted a position with the UFCW Local 1, where she became part of an outstanding work family. She held the title of healthcare benefit clerk for employee benefits.

Lisa had a zest for life, forever fun loving, spirited and enthusiastic. She celebrated each day with a remarkable passion. She was an incredibly charismatic woman who was the heart of any party. When Lisa walked into a room, she was the center of its energy, as others were naturally drawn to her confidence, charm, and engaging personality. With her contagious sense of humor, quick wit, and entertaining sarcasm, Lisa brought fun and excitement into the lives of everyone she knew. She was honest and forthcoming about her insights and opinions, especially when faced with the need to protect the interest of those she loved. Lisa embraced family life; she was an affectionate daughter, proud to be one of “five sisters” and a lighthearted and fun aunt. It was always her priority to show her loved ones how much she cherished their relationships. Perhaps one of her most endearing qualities was the generous expression of her affection toward the family and friends she loved so dearly. A truly unforgettable woman, the memories made with Lisa left deep and lasting imprints upon the hearts of all those who knew her. During her illness, she rallied and resiliently faced and acknowledged her health challenges with much courage. But, ironically, one would wonder if sometimes special people like Lisa, knew their time on this earth would be less than others. Her leisure activities included following the sport of Nascar racing, endearing herself to Dale Earnhart, Jr. She participated in “retail therapy” and looked forward to the yearly gathering with her entire family at camp in the Adirondacks. She was a parishioner of St. Anthony & St. Agnes Church.

Lisa is survived by her beloved parents, Steve and Arlene; her sisters and brothers-in-law, Lynne Anne and Brian Toussaint of Deerfield, Laurie Anne Flagg and Jim Vincent of Utica, Leslie Anne and Gaetano Spina of Frankfort, and Stephanie Anne Madia and fiance Tom Conte of New Hartford. Also left to remember her are her nieces and nephews, Brianne Toussaint, and Shane Toussaint; William “Billy” Flagg who was also her Godson, and Cara Flagg; Nino Spina, and Jake Spina; Ciara Madia, and Jordan Madia, who also shared the relationship of Godson; an aunt and uncle, Antonia and Michael Fusco; great aunts, great uncles, and cousins. Lisa was blessed with many wonderful and loyal friends with special mention of Lisa Gaetano, Lauren Testa, and Mark Rodeo, as well as her many supportive co-workers at UFCW, extended family and many, many countless others who have shared great support. She was predeceased by her maternal grandparents, Francis A. “Butch” and Amelia A. “Mal” Jones; and her paternal grandparents Frank S. and Jenny Marchitelli.

“We would like to thank our family and friends who have kept us going along the journey. From the homemade meals to the hugs and kind words you provided us comfort. A special thank you to our friends and co-workers at the Faxton-St. Luke's Healthcare Center. Your support has been amazing; to the nurses, caregivers and physicians in the CCU- your knowledge and skill provided Lisa with exceptional care. Your empathy and compassion provided us peace and we will forever be grateful."

Visitation will be held on Monday from 4-7 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend Lisa's funeral service and Celebration of Life which will commence on Tuesday morning at 10:30 at St. Anthony & St. Agnes Church where her Mass of Christian Burial will be offered by Rev. Anthony P. LaFache, Pastor.

“ Dear Steve, Arlene, Lynne, Laurie, Leslie, & Stephanie,

How sad I was to hear of Lisa's passing. I know it has been years since we've seen each other but the fond feelings and memories growing up across the street from each other can't be erased. They are part of us. Of course the girls were friends with my sisters because i was older. I remember baby sitting for the girls and Lisa would always make me laugh. Looking at her picture in this memorial I see the same shining eyes and precious smile that she had as a child. A beautiful girl in and out. The mention of her name brings a smile to your face. There are people in life like Lisa that just emit goodness and make others feel good about themselves being around her. Words are not sufficient to express my thoughts. So i will keep you all in my prayers and know you will join together as a family for support. God will support you when you are tired. I know the pain of losing a loved one young, and know what the support of family and friends mean. So my former neighbors take care of each other and I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. May memories of happy times put a smile in your heart.

“ Dear Aunt Lisa,

I will never ever forget you. You may not be with us physically, but I know you will always be around watching over all of us. You are in my thoughts everyday and everynight. I try to be strong for you and everyone, because I know that you would want all of us to be happy. You always put everyone else first. Everyone knows what a great women you were. You were funny, outgoing, beyond beautiful and i could never forget to add how strong you were. You delt with more than i would have ever been able to. You fought like no other. You always put a smile on everyones faces and you were always there for me no matter what. I could not have asked for a better Aunt. Noone will ever compare to or replace my Aunt, Lisa Anne Marchitelli. Anyone would have been lucky to have someone like you. It just kills me that you never had the chance to get married or have kids and live the life you wanted to. If i could, i would take your place for you in a heartbeat. I remember the days where we would rewind movies over and over to share a laugh or have sleepovers every so often and follow the same routine: Rent one or two movies and order a large pizza. Sometimes wings, but just for me, because you were a vegetarian. But I remember you did eat bacon though. And you would always let me sleep in your bed and you would take the couch. I wish we could have spent more time together. The memories me and you shared or just the whole family in general is unforgettable. The reason memories are held onto so tightly is because they are the only things that will never change. OH and we all know how much you loved your QVC. I just wanted to let you know that i still wear your ring almost 24/7. The one that you gave me for my confirmation when I chose you as my sponsor. I wouldn't have wanted to pick anyone else. Also nonee gave me a necklace today that she said was yours, that she knew you would have wanted me to have, and i wore a shirt that you passed down to me awhile back and wore it to your wake in honor of you. It made me feel special that i was wearing so many things that were given to me by you. I wish you could have seen how many people showed up for you and to support the family. Anyways, everyone misses you and it was very hard to let go of you, but we could all agree that the choice that was made was best for you. We know that is what you would have wanted. I was very happy that you had to no longer suffer and that you could rest in peace. It comforts me to know that people were already up in heaven waiting for you and are taking care of you up there. This is not goodbye forever. Someday i will meet you there and see you again. I love you with all my heart.

Ps: Dale Ernhart Jr, Jack and coke, Hangover I & II, Surviving Christmas and so much more will always remind me of you.

Your niece,

“ To the Marchitelli family,

I would like to express my deepest condolences to you all. I am writing this with a heavy heart. Lisa and I have known each other since we were 10 years old. She was always nice to me and never had a bad word to speak about anyone. I had the opportunity to go with Lisa to concerts and events around the area when we were younger. My fondest memory of her as she had a great time when I took her to see the Doobie Brothers at the Utica Memorial Auditorium. She was a true friend to me and I'll always have room in my heart for her memory.

Jesus said on his sermon on the mountain" there are many mansions in my father's house and he who believes in me will share them with my father in paradise". I am sure that she is one of those mansions in paradise.

May the Holy Spirit give your family the strength to get through this difficult time in your life's. Celebrate Lisa's life and remember all the good times you had with her while she was on this earth for such a short time. God bless you Lisa, you always have a piece of my heart. Water

Sincerely,

“ Aunt Lisa,
It is so hard for me to believe I am attending your wake tonight. I wished for years that this day would never come, but Mother Nature gave us a beautiful day to mourn the passing of a beautiful person; a woman who was radiant inside and out. You were a woman who always knew how to make someone feel better, even if you didn't do much more than smile. You had a smile and a personality that could light up a room as well as everyones hearts. You have fought the good fight for far too many years, and finally, your struggle is over. I'd love to talk to you one more time, even though I know you are in a better place now. It is true when they say that "only the good die young", and Aunt Lisa, you were a woman who deserved nothing but the best. You have left a mark on all of the hearts that you've touched, and you will be remembered by many. I am so sorry that we were never able to go out and celebrate my 21st birthday with a drink, but the family will toast to your strength and courage for years to come. I am so lucky to be your niece, to call you my Aunt, and to have shared the memories with you that I have. You will forever and always be in my heart and in my thoughts. I know I speak for dozens when I say you will ALWAYS be missed and loved. Rest in Peace.

Lisa was a beautiful young woman with a smile to light up a room. Everytime I saw her she would go out of her way to say hello and chat for awhile. There are no answers to explain why this happens, but we must be strong and have faith that they are in a much better place.

“ Dear Arlene, Steve, Lynne , Brian, ...your entire family,
I am so sad to hear about Lisa. My heart goes out to all of you.
Steve when I saw you at the hospital last week , I had no idea.
When I did hear she was in the hospital, I had candles lit for her day and night.
Just the mention of Lisa's name would bring a smile to anyone's face that knew her. It didn't matter how much time had passed, if I had said to one of my family members that I saw Lisa and she said to say hi, a smile would appear, and sometimes a chuckle! and vice a versa if anyone of them had seen her and relayed the message to me. Her warmth, smile and laughter will always be remembered.
I have always shared stories with our children of the fond memories and bonds of friendship that began so long ago on South St. We "shared" homes for a lot of years! Lisa definitely added so much to those memories, I hope it helps just a little to know that she will live in through the lives that she touched. Please know that all of you will continually be in my heart and prayers. She is among the angels and with God now , surely she will intercede for you. May God give you the strength to get through this.

Lenora,

I read your kind words to me. It is these sorrowful situations that bring friends together despite time and distance. Yet it is our collective connectedness that began nearly four decades ago and longer -- during that innocent, less demanding time of our youth -- that remains strong and true no matter what.

God knows you've confronted your personal crosses courageously. My best to Donna, whom I think of often. We all are people of Faith and it carries us through the rough journey of life. Now we witness our dear friends, the Marchitelli family, endure an enormous struggle. Prayers shall prevail.

Susan, thanks for your kind words. I meant no offense by typing my first response which appeared short and abrupt. Reading the memorial tributes through misty eyes during sleepless nights, I was confused when I saw Dawn's name. I thought that you had the wrong family. The Marchitelli family and myself accept your sentiments. We do appreciate your remembrance of Lisa, as well as any other kind tributes that will come our way. Our sister Lisa would have been proud, and thankful. Thank you. Lynne

“ Dear Marchitelli Family,
Lisa was a genuine soul and had a laugh and smile that really did light up a room. She was a special woman and you are a special family that will be together again one day. Until then, always remember that she is watching over you and is no longer suffering. No words can express our sympathy. She will truly be missed.

“ Dear Lisa,
How horrible it has been to have my younger sister pass before me. It has been a nightmare that I unfortunately have not awakened from. You were one of the sweetest, most selfless people that I have ever known. You always put others before you, especially your family. You fought the good fight. If I could have done more to save you, I would have. God must have had other plans. People say that only the good die young. My only comfort is believing that you are watching all of us from above, and that you are surrounded by all who have passed before you. Brave little sister, I hope and pray that you rest in peace. I will always love you. Until we meet again ...
Love,
Your oldest sister,
Lynne

Lynne,

My genuine sympathy and sorrow as you courageously confront the loss of your wonderful sister. I vividly recall your parents, you particularly, and your sisters always committed to each other as a strong family. Thoughts of you during those carefree, fun days of our youth at Albany School, as well as at Proctor High School, still vividly remain as the goodness and decency of a different era. Do know that only Lisa's earthly existence is absent. Yet her beautiful spirit shall live on in those million memories you harbor of an amazing human being. You and your sisters and kind parents are blessed beyond comprehension that Lisa came your way. Wherever you go, whatever you do, and no matter life's inevitable challenges there will always be somebody praying for you, somebody guiding you, somebody loving you. That 'somebody' is Lisa.

Blessings always.

Leslie -

You're very welcome. Those of us who grew up with Lynne since the early 1970s vividly, happily recall your wonderful parents, and all their girls!

Families in our neighborhoods from Proctor High School to Proctor Park were close-knit and knew many people from Grammar/Junior High/High School, baseball/softball/Pop Warner, and simply hanging out together at Albany Street School. Those precious days of our youth keep us connected.

So, our (my twin brother and my youngest sister) hearts are heavy knowing our good and decent longtime friends are experiencing enormous loss and enduring unspeakable grief.

Though I'm blessed to not lose a sibling, I've lost three beautiful cousins too young, and certain friends also too young to die. Each passed away in their teens in the 1970s. Our prayers will not cease as we believe the power of prayer shall prevail in bringing you and your sisters and parents comfort as each of you move on without Lisa's earthly existence.

*Peace/Blessings,

“ Dear Aunt Lisa,

I can't stand the fact that your gone , but not completely out of our lives. I know you will always be with us. Even if we go on trips, or playing games, and especially watching movies. I will always know your right here next to us. I have had the best times with you. From watching movies , and to playing games. Your constant laughter was all I needed to have a great time. The way you would joke around , and when you wanted to rewind the part of the movie that would make you laugh would be the best part. You were one of the strongest people I have ever known. You suffered through alot and still stayed strong. When you past away, I couldn't believe it at all. Even though this had happend , I know that you are always watching everything we are doing. I love you so much, and want you to know that. The 13 years I have been with you have been the most fun of my life. No matter how old I get, I will never forget that you were the best aunt in the world.

I miss you so much. I had been crying most the time you have been gone. I love you and miss you so much. I was so close and we were alike in so many ways. You were basically my role model. I thought you were getting better. I was so excited and then the next day you passed. It was the sadest day of my life. Ever. I miss you so much and I want you to come back and you never will. Im gonna get a tattoo with your name in it. Im going to try to stay strong but i dont know if I can. Just please help me through this. P.S. I miss all of are laughs and all the movie we watched together. I wish you were here and healthy. But I guess god wanted you their with him. In a better place. I will love you forever and always.

“ Dear Arlene, Steve, Lynne, Laurie and Stephanie,
I am in complete shock. I cannot believe that Lisa has passed at such a young age. Although it has been many years since we have seen each other, it seems like yesterday that we all played together on South Street and in your home on Culver Avenue. Laurie was my best friend growing up which meant we had the pleasure of having Lisa play with us too. Lisa was always so funny and always laughing. She was spunky and kind and so beautiful. I remember sitting on Laurie's bed with her and Lisa and listening to the Frampton Comes Alive album. I remember riding our bikes to the Albany Street School playground or to "the dairy" and buying milk and candy bars. I have such fond and amazing memories growing up with your entire family.
Please accept my heartfelt sympathy and love in the passing of Lisa. I hope you can all find some peace and comfort in all your wonderful memories of Lisa.

“ To My Sister Lisa,

Words can not even describe what I am feeling right now, what all of us are feeling... I love you whole heartedly and will miss you so much. I am so honored to have had you in my life and to have had such a loving and supportive big sister. I learned so much from you and you are truly one of my greatest role models and one of my best friends. You taught me the power of love and you showed me the true meaning of family. No matter what you were going through, in good health or in bad... you always put that to the side to make sure that I was okay and that everyone in your life was okay. Your love for everyone couldn't have shined brighter! You were so caring and loving, so selfless, you are the greatest person I know. I will miss our long talks, and how we were ironically always going through a similar situation at the same time and we would always understand what the other was feeling. We knew what we were going to say to one another before the words even came out of our mouths. I wish I could see you again and just talk to you one more time... but I know I will see you one day. I will hold on to that each and every day until we meet again. I will cherish all of our memories, both the private memories and our family memories. I love you with all of my heart. I will pray for you everyday. I know you are safe and that you are with all of our family members who passed and that you are with your dear friends. I can only imagine how happy they are to have you with them. I know this because I know how happy we were to have you with us. I will miss you so much. I LOVE YOU! Always and forever!!!!

In Heaven, you are being cared for by all of those you have loved and missed for so long - this brings all of us peace. In Heaven, you are forever beautiful, healthy, free of pain, and on the most wonderful "trip" of your life. You always said that we were supposed to be twins, being only fourteen months apart - even though when we were little you told me that Mom and Dad really found me on the doorstep! My children, Billy and Cara, love you so very much - and know that you loved them well. I will miss your laugh, your goofy presents to Daddy, your not-so-secret casino trips with Mommy, your snoring, always having to sit in the back seat because you "called front seat window", helping me open all of the Christmas presents and re-tape them so no one finds out (and telling on me afterward), wearing your hand-me-downs because you are taller, calling me on the phone fifty times a day, thanking me fifty times every time you saw me, telling me that you love me. Know that I cannot put into words how much I love you and will miss you.*
