

Mrs. Lorraine A. (Adrean) Rubino

May 28, 1932 - March 19, 2012

Mrs. Lorraine A. (Adrean) Rubino, age 79, of Utica, passed away on Monday, March 19, 2012 in the comfort of her home with her loving family and supportive friends by her side.

Lorraine was born in Utica on May 28, 1932, a daughter of the late Louis V. and Cora (Elefante) Adrean. She was raised and educated locally. On May 6, 1961 she married Nicholas A. Rubino. After 13 years of marriage, Nick passed away on February 20, 1975; to that union came the blessings of their two cherished and devoted daughters.

Lorraine began her working career with the General Electric Company at their Radio Receiver Plant. Afterward, many would remember her from her position in the meat department at Chicago Market grocery stores. She began a second career at the Utica City School District retiring after several years of service. Because of her out-going personality, Lorraine made friends wherever she went. Her optimistic outlook, sense of humor, and genuine sincerity were traits she maintained even throughout her lengthy illness. She especially enjoyed her home which was a meeting place where family and friends were welcomed to join in music, laughter, and cheerful gatherings. She was a longtime member of the former St. Agnes Church, and she held in her heart a deep and spiritual devotion to St. Jude.

Lorraine is survived by her dedicated daughters and son-in-law, Bridget E. Rubino with whom she shared a home, and Caroline J. and Shawn W. Hughes of Rome and children Delaney and Callahan "Cal" Hughes; her sister, Suzanne Sbarra of New Hartford; her sister-in-law, Dorothea Adrean who shared a great devotion to Lorraine; many cherished nieces and nephews, among them three nephews who shared in the joys of the "Webster Avenue homestead," Louis V. Adrean, Thomas L. Adrean, Jr., and Charles J. Adrean; great-nieces and great-nephews, great great-nieces and nephews, numerous cousins including, Dr. Angela Marie Elefante, who always remembered Lorraine with much kindness to this very day; in-laws, Joseph and Mimi Rubino; several godchildren; Judy (Furgol) Crouse who she loved as a daughter, as well as fun-loving neighbors and many longtime friends. Lorraine also shared the blessing and friendship of "her Nancy." She was predeceased by her brother, Thomas L. Adrean, Sr.; her sister and brother-in-law, Camille and Thomas Cavallo; and her in-laws, Nicholas Sbarra, Brigida "Bridget" Rubino, Dominick Rubino, and Angeline and Frank Yacco.

Bridget and Caroline wish to thank Dr. Bhisham Garg, a true professional and humanitarian, for his compassion, personal attention and genuine guidance for which they will be forever grateful. The family also wishes to acknowledge the staff of the St. Elizabeth Medical Center, and the personnel of Hospice & Palliative Care, Inc. The gift of the gentle, loving care given by Michele Lupia Ward, and Lucy Viti was of the greatest comfort and peace.

Visitation will be held Thursday evening from 4:00-7:00 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend Lorraine's funeral service and Celebration of Life which will commence on Friday morning at 10:30 at St. Anthony & St. Agnes Church where her Mass of Christian Burial will be offered by Rev. Joseph Salerno. Interment will take place in Calvary Cemetery at the convenience of the family. Arrangements have been entrusted to the Adrean Funeral Service, Inc., and longtime friend, Nancy L. Eannace.

“ *Dear Bridget, Caroline and Family,
I was so sorry to hear that your mother had passed. Lorraine was a one-of-a-kind, funny, sweet and generous woman. I have very fond memories of our years working together at Chicago Market on Mohawk Street. In my mind, I can see her standing behind the deli counter telling a funny story. She was the best! She brought a smile to everyone's face that she met each day.
I pray that she is resting in peace and reaping the rewards of a life that touched so many. She truly was a bright light.

“ My beloved 2nd Nonnie,
I talked to you all the time on the phone. You always asked me, "When the hell are gonna come and see me?" I was gonna surprise you and the Webster Avenue family this summer with the bambinos, but I cant do that now. My hearts is so broken. All I can do is cry. When my Nonnie, your Mary Minute, passed away you looked at me in my eyes, whipped away my tears and said to me, "Jamie Lynn, I am your Nonnie now. Don't you worry about anything. We are family and we will stick together. Dont you ever forget that. I love you Jamie with all my heart and your 2nd Nonnie will always be here for you." I am in a nightmare that I can not wake up from. I have your voicemail that you left me, and I listen to it all the time. I miss you. I need you. Your family needs you. I love you. We ALL love you. You will always be in my heart and mind. When it is my turn for God to call me home, all I ask from you is that you and Nonnie are there to welcome me with some good homemade italian cookies. Rest In Peace our beautiful angel.

“Bridget, Caroline and family-I am so sorry for your lose. If you need anything, please do not hesitate to contact me or Jamie. We love you ladies!

Lorraine, I will never forget the first time I met you and the Webster Avenue family. We were all sitting at the table talking, laughing while homemade meatballs were being made. You put a whole plate in front of me and told me that I better eat them all, and I did. Next thing I know, you had another huge plate full in front of me. I looked at Jamie and said, "I cant eat this. I am so full. Im gonna throw up." Jamie laughed. You must of heard what I said to Jamie because you looked at me and said, "Listen here you suma da b**** you better eat them!!" Jamie tried to prepare me by telling me that in an Italian household if they offer you food and you dont eat it, it is like a slap in the face to the host and disrespectful. So I ate them. After that day, it all made sense to me why my wife is crazy. hahahaha But, good crazy. I never saw my wife so happy when she was with you all back home in NY. Just to see that sparkle in her eye was truly amazing. (It was the same sparkle in her eye when she talks about her Nonnie, Mary.) Also, to see the bond that you all have with each other is truly a blessing. In which I am so thankful to be apart of. Lord, has gained another angel that I know will protect us all. Thank you for making my wife smile. Thank you for always being there for her and the family. But, most of all, thank you for being you. You are truly were a blessing on earth that I was so lucky to have in my life. We love you! Rest In Peace!
