

Mrs. Lynda Ann (Perritano) Padula

August 19, 1947 - December 30, 2023

UTICA – Mrs. Lynda Ann (Perritano) Padula, age 76, was reunited with her beloved husband, Dennis, when she passed away on Saturday, December 30, 2023 with her loving children by her side.

Born in Utica on August 19, 1947, Lynda was the daughter of the late Peter A. and Ann W. (Wood) Perritano. A proud graduate of Utica Free Academy, she continued her education by attending college in California for a period of time. After returning to Utica, she worked at Oneida National Bank. In 1969, she met the love of her life, Dennis F. Padula, and they were married on March 9, 1974. Lynda and Dennis had an unbreakable bond. They were always on the same page and did everything as a team. Their personalities complemented each other beautifully and they created a close-knit, loving family admired by many. They shared over 38 years of marriage prior to Dennis' passing on January 31, 2013. Lynda missed him dearly every day since.

In 1979, Lynda and Dennis established Dennis Padula and Sons Roofing and Sheet Metal Co. After Dennis' passing, Lynda continued on as owner and overseer of the company's daily operations, working alongside her children to uphold Dennis' impeccable standards. She balanced her professional commitments with being at home to care for all her children's needs.

Lynda was a strong and steadfast supporter of her family, never missing her children's or grandchildren's school and sporting events. She was an avid tea drinker and never missed watching her daily "story", Days of Our Lives. Lynda was a talented singer as well as a phenomenal cook. Some of her specialties included her fried pole beans and stuffed artichokes. Above all, Lynda's heart and energies were dedicated to her children and grandchildren. Her desire for them to be the very best they could be, was balanced with unconditional love and support. It was important to Lynda to uphold family traditions, which she always did with style and grace. Gatherings at the Padula's house were unforgettable; the door was always open to family and friends to form bonds and create cherished memories.

Lynda was a devout Catholic and a longtime parishioner of St. Mark's Church.

Lynda is survived by her children, Renata A. Padula, Joseph P. and Heather Padula, Dennis F. Padula II, and Peter M. and Danielle Padula; her grandchildren, Alexandria, Analise, Antonio, Nina Belle, Arabella, Peter II, and Nella; and great-granddaughter, Jovanna. She fondly remembered her brother, Peter D. Perritano, who preceded her on December 10, 2008. She also leaves her memory to many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins; in-laws, Phyllis Padula, Kathy Perritano, and Rosemary Padula; a special aunt, Victoria Perritano; and close family and friends, Rosaria Haggerty, Eileen Julian, Irene Gugnacki, and Ron and Jesse Cerminaro. Lynda was predeceased by her father-in-law and mother-in-law, Michael E. and Margaret R. (Averson) Padula; and in-laws, Dominick Padula, Mary Beth Kocyba, Antoinette "Toni" Padula Cinque, and Robert M. Padula.

The family extends their heartfelt thanks to the staff of the ICU at Wynn Hospital, and Dr. Fred Talarico and his staff, for their compassionate care of Lynda.

“ I never met Lynda but know we got a big piece of her in Denny. I have laughed my face off and had my heart warmed listening to him speaking about her. And he treated us to her fried meatballs and sauce, pasta and gorgonzola pear salad recipe. Rest in peace Lynda - a woman who evidently made a big impact. Condolences to Denny and the family.

“ My Dear Cousin Lynda:

You created a great presence here on Earth through your great generosity and loving nature. You light up a room with your presence, for you loved entertaining your friends and relatives. Thanks for all you and Dennis did, hosting me at your home during my visits to Utica. My memories of you and I are great, all the way back to our childhoods, when you lived in California. May you rest in peace and enjoy your departed relatives and friends, while looking lovingly down upon us from Heaven.

Love you always, your Cousin Vinny from California
