“ Madeline was my God"mother". Her love for me was genuine. She never forgot my birthday and every Christmas I couldn't wait to receive the cinnamon candy she made. It was a 'tradition' for me that Ken has carried on when Madeline couldn't any longer. Years ago when we actually hand wrote letters to each others, Madeline "always" wrote on the outside envelope: "Smile God Loves You"...well Madeline, even though my heart is broken, I'm Smiling because I know without a doubt, your in heaven sitting with God. Rest in Peace Madeline. You will always be in my heart.
