

Mamie V. (Henness) Spano

June 16, 1914 - August 29, 2006

Mrs. Mamie V. (Henness) Spano, age 92, of Utica, passed away on Tuesday, August 29, 2006, at the St. Luke's Home with her family by her side.

Born in Blenheim, NY on June 16, 1914, Mamie was the daughter of the late William and Belle (Slater) Hennes. She was raised and educated in Syracuse. At one time, she was married to Joseph Spano, who passed away in 1976.

In Mamie's early working years, she was employed by the Dunlop Tire Company, and later worked at the Coca Cola Bottling Company. She was a happy, energetic woman who loved the many people she befriended during her lifetime. As the matriarch of her family, she took pride in her home and provided her loved ones with a cheerful and cozy sanctuary. As a pastime, she loved to read her Harlequin romance novels, and she had a cherished closeness to her cats. She was a communicant of Historic Old St. John's Church.

Mrs. Spano is survived by her two daughters, Christine Capron, and Christina Rose Spano, both of Utica; her son, Joseph J. Blake, Sr. of Utica; many grandchildren; 23 great-grandchildren; her brothers, Emery Hennes of Delhi, NY, and George Hennes of Rome, NY. Also surviving are many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, and cousins; and her dear and cherished friends, Shirley Walters, and Helen Fountain. She was predeceased by her daughter, Olive Irene Wayman, her granddaughter, Mary Catherine Files, her sister, Ruby Massucci, her brother, Clarence Hennes, and her niece, Judith (Massucci) Pollard.

Tribute Wall

“*rose and family iam sorry for your lose she lived a long happy life may she rest in peace and may god be with everyone in your family.
ann formaly of utica##imported-begin##mrs.ann sheppard fayettivillie.nc##imported-end##*

September 03, 2006 at 03:26 PM