Marilu worked for a period of time as a Retail Clerk at the Dollar Tree in Utica. A woman with a great sense of humor, Marilu was always smiling and could make others laugh. Many who met her came to love her, and her parents considered Marilu a fantastic daughter. She always made sure to take care of her family. Marilu was a “mom” to many of the neighborhood kids, many of whom affectionately remember her as the ICEE Lady for providing the cold treats. The neighborhood children also have fond memories of Marilu dressing up as a clown for their entertainment. A truly creative and energetic soul, she was always the life of the party.

Marilu is survived by her father, Dario A. Mazzanet Colon and his companion, Isabel Rosado; her children, Indianis Burgos, Luis Abdiel Galandino, and Jean Carlos Martinez; and her grandchildren, Fabiana, Genesis, Alexis, Jahziel, and Jayden. Marilu was blessed with step siblings from her dad's previous and current relationships, Yoito, Lyvel, Wandy, Cisco, Joey, Richie, Ruly, Ary, and Nana. She will be remembered by her many nieces and nephews, including Roberto "Tito", Jesus and Anthony Andino, Jarek, and especially acknowledging Idasmyre, and Irving who were her only two biological niece and nephew.
