“Sister Marilyn was a woman of quiet strength and deep humility. She opened not only her home, but, also, her heart to others. welcoming people each week for Bible studies, offering not just a place to learn, but a place to belong. Her kitchen, filled with the warmth of her cooking, became a place of nourishment, both physically and spiritually. Many were blessed by the meals she lovingly prepared, each dish an act of kindness that made others feel seen and cared for.

Marilyn greeted everyone with open arms, embodying the love and grace of Christ in the way she embraced others. Whether it was a longtime friend or a first-time visitor, she had a way of making people feel like they mattered—and they did- to her and to God.

Marilyn was a devoted grandmother. Her grandchildren were her joy, and their health, happiness, and knowledge of Jesus was a top priority to her.

She leaves behind a legacy of humility, generosity, and unwavering faith. Though

We give thanks for Marilyn's life—so rich in love, so full of grace. She will be deeply missed, but we rejoice in the hope and promise of eternity, where she is now fully at home with her Savior.
