Born in Utica on January 11, 1942, Marilyn was the daughter of the late Frank "Hank" and Jadwiga "Hattie" (Hawrylczyk) Fabbio. Raised and educated locally, she was a graduate of T.R. Proctor High School. On June 1, 1963 she married Douglas James "Doug" Tudor. Doug was Marilyn's rock and they shared a blessed 45-year marriage founded on love and nurtured by their mutual support and concern for each other. Her beloved Doug passed away on June 29, 2008.

During the 1960's Marilyn was employed by the New York Telephone Company. In her later working years she held various positions including K-Mart, Fay's Drugs, and Carter's Outlet. A quiet and reserved woman, Marilyn held a deep love for her family and their well-being. Her leisure interests included ceramics, painting, sewing, quilting, needlepoint, and stamp collecting. Marilyn's Catholic faith was not just a part of her life, but her whole life, and she relied on God's grace in her times of need. When she was able to attend church it was at her parish, St. Joseph & St. Patrick Church.

Marilyn is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, James M. "Jim" and Jessica F. Tudor of Chichester, NH; her grandchildren, Michael and Jennifer Tudor of Leominster, MA, and their daughter Vivian, born the morning of September 14, 2014; Kimberly Tudor of Whitesboro and her son, Johnathan, and William Tudor of Chichester, NH; and her sister and brother-in-law,
