

Marlan James Manion-Harry

April 9, 2015 - April 9, 2015

David Harry and Tracy Manion of Waterville mourn the loss of their stillborn son, Marlan James, who became an angel on April 9, 2015.

He knew the love of his parents from the time of his conception, until the moment of his passing as he was held in the arms of his mom and dad, and now in the arms of the Lord.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by his sister Marley; his brother Blake; and his half-brothers Robert and Shaun. He will also be held in the hearts of his maternal grandparents, Ed and Ann Manion; his maternal great-grandmothers, Marilyn, and Midge; many aunts, uncles, and cousins. Awaiting his arrival in heaven are his maternal great-grandfathers, Marlan Manion, after whom he was named, and Sylvester Wratten; and his paternal grandparents, Ronald and Martha Harry.

All are welcome to gather to support his family during the hour of 2:00 pm -3:00 pm on Saturday, April 18, 2015. A prayer of remembrance will conclude visitation. He will be laid to rest in St. Bernard Cemetery in Waterville at a future date.

Tribute Wall

“ Healing Tears - Blue and White was purchased for the family of Marlan James Manion-Harry.

April 17, 2015 at 05:17 PM

“ We are so sorry for your loss. Many prayers and much love being sent your way. Marlan is now being held in the arms of the Lord. We love you all! Love, Bud, Karen, Brianna and Oliver

Karen Moody - April 16, 2015 at 11:18 AM