

Marlana Natalie Esper-Granato

October 17, 2007 - October 17, 2007

Baby Marlana Natalie Esper-Granato, less than one day old, joined God's choir of Angels on Wednesday, October 17, 2007 when she passed away at the Faxton-St. Luke's Healthcare Center surrounded by the love and comfort of her family.

Born in New Hartford on October 17, 2007, Marlana is the daughter of Eric D. Granato and Angela C. Esper. Her survivors also include her maternal grandparents, Joseph P. and Anita Esper of Utica; her paternal grandparents, Sharon Granato of Utica, and Louis Granato of PA; her aunts and uncles, Karen Granato, Louis and Rose Granato, and Renee Granato; her paternal great-grandmother, Ruth Schaffer; her paternal great-grandfather, Joseph LaBoon; many great-aunts, great-uncles, and cousins.

The family wishes to thank the entire staff of the 3rd floor Labor, Delivery, and PostPartum Unit at Faxton-St. Luke's Healthcare Center for their delicate care and concern.

Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend Marlana's Mass of the Angels to be celebrated on Monday morning at 9:00 at St. Paul's Church, Whitesboro. The family will receive visitors at the conclusion of the service. Interment will take place in Calvary Cemetery at the convenience of the family. Arrangements have been entrusted to the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave.

“ Eric and Angela - I remember when your baby girl went to heaven (your Aunt Mary kept me informed.) I hope my sister, Angela, will get to meet her in heaven. Thank you for being there for us and praying for us when my sister (Angela Morosco Barnes) died. Love, your adopted-aunt, Lisa in Indianapolis.##imported-begin##Lisa (Morosco) Sassman ##imported-end##
