“ To The Ventura Family and the Heitz Family

We are very sorry for your loss and regret that we cannot attend these proceedings. We know she was a great person by the way each of you attended to her needs.

We will pray for her and for the strenght that each of you will need to get you through this time of sorrow. We know that there isn't much we can do for you because of the distance between us, but if there is anything , please ask.

Love

“ *I would just like Mary's family to know how much my sisters and I appreciated Mary looking out for both my parents in the nursing home until my father died last year tomorrow, and then my mother after he passed. She would look in on them across the hall to chat with them or check to see that they received their daily newspaper. I would always stop by to talk with her when I came up from Maryland to visit. We had many pleasant conversations. She was a lovely lady. I will miss her sorely when I come up next, as I'm sure all her family will everyday from now on. At least there is comfort in knowing she is not in any pain and is with her husband in heaven. I could tell she loved him very much, as she did her children. I am so sorry for your loss. “ I wanted you to know what a comfort Mary was to both my parents and when my father died last year, she was especially great and a wonderful listener to console my mother across the hall, Helen Ziemba. I am the one who lives in New Hartford and we wish to convey our sympathy at the loss of your mother. She is certainly right in heaven now and no more suffering. She will always be in your hearts and memories. Louise & George White##imported-begin##Louise White (Helen & Henry Ziemba's daughter)##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to hear of your loss...as you so aptly put, she was the last surviving member, our last aunt. Although we didn't speak much, the last few years of my mom's life (Jennie) I truly enjoyed reading Aunt Mary's letters to Ma. I was really looking forward to seeing her at Roseanne's anniversary party. She will live on in our hearts, and in her letters.

Love and Bless you all.
