

Mary D. (Vilardi) Angelillo

July 15, 1930 - April 24, 2009

Mrs. Mary D. (Vilardi) Angelillo, age 78, of Utica, passed away on Friday, April 24, 2009 at The Pines at Utica with her loving husband by her side.

Born in Utica on July 15, 1930, Mary was the daughter of the late Nicholas and Margaret (Meola) Vilardi. She was raised and educated locally. On October 29, 1949 at St. Agnes Church she married Dominick J. Angelillo. The couple shared in a devoted union of 59 years filled with mutual love and respect for each other.

Mary worked as a nurse's aide at Faxton Hospital and at one time, she was employed as an inspector at the Oneita Knitting Mill.

A meticulous, caring woman during her time on earth, Mary 'exemplified goodness', and she was always ready and willing to assist anyone in need. She looked forward to planting her flower garden, a springtime tradition which brought her great joy. She was a parishioner of St. Anthony & St. Agnes Church.

Mary is survived by her beloved husband, Dick. Always close to her heart was the memory of her cherished daughter, Marguerite P. Angelillo, was passed away on March 18, 1997. Survivors also include several cousins; and her sister-in-law, Marie "Mary" Angelillo of Utica. She was predeceased by her mother-in-law and father-in-law, Filomena (Pisano) and Vito Angelillo.

Visitation will be held Monday from 5:00-7:00 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. Mary's funeral service will commence on Tuesday morning at 9:30 from the funeral home and at 10:30 at St. Anthony & St. Agnes Church where her Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated. Interment will take place in St. Agnes Cemetery at the convenience of the family.
