

Mary Jo Malachino

February 10, 1948 - August 13, 2012

Mary Jo Malachino, age 64, of Utica, passed away unexpectedly on Monday, August 13, 2012 at the St. Elizabeth Medical Center with her loving family at her side.

Mary Jo was born in Utica on February 10, 1948, the daughter of the late Joseph and Nancy (Palladino) Malachino. She attended local schools and continued her education at M.V.C.C. earning an Associates Degree in Early Childhood Development.

Currently, Mary Jo held the position of Customer Service Representative with the Mohawk Valley Home Comfort Services. She had fond memories of her employment with Pizza Pad where she formed many lasting friendships. Mary Jo was gracious with all heart, her welcoming ways, and wonderful sense of humor. Anyone who visited was put at ease and made to feel like family with her love, and many who knew her characteristically called her "Mama Jo". She mastered many culinary capabilities, especially baking. Above all, she felt that her greatest accomplishments in life were raising her children while watching over and actively being a part of her grandchildren's lives. Being born into a musical family, she was blessed with a beautiful voice, a gift she shared with her loved ones. She had a mellow personality with a natural ability to relate to and enjoy any social group. Mary Jo was crafty, creative, an eager reader, and a compassionate woman who loved and cared for all God's creatures, great and small.

Mary Jo is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Dawn M. and Robert F.

Acquaviva; and her son Damion M. Malachino and Jennifer L. Barr, all of Utica; her grandchildren and the lights of her life, Alexander, Zavior, Seann, and Jenna. She also leaves her brothers and sisters-in-law, Anthony and Dianne Malachino of LA, and David and Penny Malachino of MA; many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, aunts and uncles; sister-in-law, Barbara Malachino of MI, George P. George with whom she shared more than 30 years of companionship. She was predeceased by her brother, Joseph Malachino.

Visitation will be held Thursday from 4:00-6:00 p.m. at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. Immediately upon the conclusion of visitation, Mary Jo's family will honor her life with a Prayer Service led by Pastor Kevin Hodkinson. Interment will take place in Calvary Cemetery at the convenience of the family.

“ I am sorry to read of your loss. Many have lost loved ones and want to see them again. The Bible actually says what will be death's unavoidable eventuality at Revelation 21:4, which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Death will be gone forever. May this be of encouragement to the family of Mary Jo Malachino.

“ Cricket how did the years get away from us It seem like just yesterday when we were planing my wedding and following your brother's band around. Then there was the Hyland Tower enough said. We drifted away with our families but you were talked about often and never forgot. Dawn and Damion hope you remember all the good from your mom she always loved you and lived each day for you.

When you get to the great reunion in the sky please say hi for me to Pete. Vinny mom and dad I am sure that they will welcome you home with open arms.

Thanks for being like a sister to me

Mary Jo of all the years i worked with you it will never be the same in this office. I sill will take our breaks together at 3pm, you might not be there in body but in spirit. We have shared so much together and we were like family. Your customers will miss talking to you whom you were very gracious with. You had the patients of a saint. When i couldn't get anything to work right you took it and very patiently fixed it. I admire the time you spent with your grandchildren whom you adored. Now who is going to make posters for us. Heck you were an artist i can't even draw a straight line. Dawn and Damion were also the light of your life. I know you will always be with us and watch over us. Hey one thing you never sang for us and i heard you had a great voice. Well Mary Jo until we meet again rest in peace. You are with the angels now and can rest at ease.

“ Angels gathered around you
they knew the pain you were going through.
The heavens rays shined down on you
the soft beams of light; warm on your face.
God was calling, with a stretched out hand,
it was time to leave this place.
Now you are gracing the heavens
with just your very presence,
as you have to all of us.
For you are of great importance;
a huge role in many lives.
No day or night will be the same,
no moment will be silent of mournful cries.
You will never be forgotten
this I know is true.
Cause how can anyone forget someone as wonderful as you.

Never in my life have I ever had so many regrets. Mostly that I didn't keep in better contact with you Ma. I'm sorry for that. And I'm deeply sorry that you didn't have a chance to know your granddaughter, Jenna better. I took for granted that you would always be there. That I would always have that day when I could call, or come and see you.

I still have pics of you, my favorite is the one with you holding zavior when he was just born and still in the hospital. I even still have the pic of grandma malachino holding him at her house. :) I will always remember the times we had, all those years ago. Sitting on the porch in clayville all day, me watching you cook your amazing meals, laughing at the cat. Remember when pepper brought home a full size live rabbit and let it go in the house?....yeah, that was fun. Had to catch it in a coffee can, lol. Or the times you would beat up on Damion and he would just curl up in a fetal position, lol. I miss you ma and I thank you for everything. Love always and forever till death do us part and eternally ever after Tracie.

Susanne, i agree. I walked in Monday morning and was shocked not to see her sitting there ready to ask me about an application due to my bad handwriting, Then Tuesday i was informed of her passing and it just didn't feel the same. Today was just as bad and know she is in a good place and not in pain and she will be missed by all. Rest in Peace Mary Jo until we meet again.
