

Baby Maximus John Ptak

February 27, 2020

NEW HARTFORD - Baby Maximus John Ptak, carried for 36 weeks in his mother's womb, went home to Heaven as an Angel on Thursday, February 27, 2020 at MVHS at St. Luke's Healthcare.

Maximus was the son of Matthew John and Gina Marie (Barone) Ptak. While mom was carrying their long-awaited baby boy, he kicked and elbowed, especially after a good meal prepared by his daddy. He heard the roaring crowds when mom and dad took him to a Philadelphia Eagles football game. On this trip, they also visited the zoo and aquarium. He was a future Yankees fan. Along with his uncle, he attended a rock concert and a performance by country singer Chris Stapleton, where he was moving with his mom to the booming music. He enjoyed the calming effect that camping outdoors had on his mom, and ultimately on him. He knew the sounds of the horses at the Saratoga Race Track, and he went to work everyday with his mom. His daddy was so looking forward to taking him and his cousins fishing at the St. Lawrence and Salmon Rivers. He was a beautiful baby with chubby cheeks and a strong will, but his affliction with Down Syndrome denied him the chance to come into this world. His mom and dad did so much work to prepare his room filled with white furniture, tan accessories, a 4 foot giraffe with a bow tie, and children's books, individually chosen for him. It was waiting for Maximus. If he had lived, his parents hoped he would blossom into a high-functioning Down Syndrome individual who would expand his horizons being part of a team and enjoy the life he was given.

Deacon Paul Lehmann baptized Maximus John to assure his salvation, and Heaven now has him.

Maximus' memory will remain in the heart and soul of his daddy Matt and mommy Gina; his maternal grandparents, 'papa' Richard and 'meme' Nilsa Barone; paternal grandparents, 'papa' George Ptak and Candy Solomito, 'nana' Deborah Amodio and 'papa' John; and his canine "sister" Trixie. He also leaves his aunts and uncles, Nicholas Barone, Nicole and Ken Powers, Michael Barone; Jessica and Pete Hashim, and Jennifer Crescenzo; and his cousins, Christian, and Connor; Anthony, and Giovanni. Awaiting Maximus with open arms as he ascends are his great-grandparents, Sam and Antonia Saladino, Frank and Lena Barone, John and Dorothy Ptak, and Raymond and Dolores Jones.

The family is grateful to the staff of MVHS at St. Luke's/Labor and Delivery Unit, an amazing group of medical professionals, especially acknowledging Michelle, Melissa, Anesthesiologist Mike, and Carol; the outstanding team of the OR unit who rallied around Gina with great support; Dr. Scott Beattie, Dr. James Tichenor, and Dr. Brian Hearn as well as their staffs at Medical Arts Ob/Gyn for their empathic care and medical expertise; and Pediatric Cardiology, Dr. Smith and staff of Syracuse, NY.

The family commemorated Maximus' angelic life at a private time. Those wishing to express an act of kindness in Maximus' memory may make a donation to The 21 Club of CNY, Inc., (a non-profit organization formed by parents and families who love someone with Down syndrome) PO Box 264, Washington Mills, NY 13479; the American Heart Association online at <https://www.heart.org/en/affiliates/new-york/mohawk-valley-region-home-page>; or the Brody Savicki Foundation (whose mission is to raise acceptance, awareness and inclusion for babies born with Down syndrome) online at <https://www.brodybuddyride.org/donate>. Funeral services will be held privately and at the convenience of the family.

“ My luv bug!! I light a purple candle for you tonight as I lay in bed thinking of you! This is the toughest month I will ever have to go through. The purple resembles your birthstone for the month of February. I miss you every single day and wish I could change all of this. We should be celebrating your 1st Birthday instead of celebrating your life. I love you so much and please be with me and help me through this month. Send me a sign cause I love seeing them! Goodnight my handsome boy. Mommy, Daddy and Trixie love you!! 🥰🦋❤️

“ Ohh my beautiful angel Maximus, the love that was at your memorial service was so special. Nancy's special touches to the room decorations were over and above. From the selected songs.....lullabies (los pollitos which I'm sure great grandma Toni is holding you in her arms singing), guitar playing, the most beautiful Ave Maria (sung by David) tears just flowing. Father Joe's prayers, helping us understand God's plan. But, most of all breaks my heart to see the pain in your Daddy and Mommy's faces. You will always be in our hearts. Will always treasure the few days that I was able to stare at your sweet face, hold you and touch your little hands and toes. Kiss your head full of black hair. Love you sooo much Max. 🙏🥰💕

“ I certainly feel your pain. My daughter in law gave birth last year to a beautiful baby boy, Garrett Elias but was taken off life support at 3 days old. He had a chromosomal condition Trisomy 13. Our hearts break daily thinking about him. We also had Nancy Eannace and her staff who are so kind & compassionate. Many prayers to all of you for baby Maximus. God bless 🙏.
