

Mrs. Susan A. (Novak) Hoole

October 15, 1948 - November 22, 2008

Mrs. Susan A. (Novak) Hoole, age 60, of Whitesboro, passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, November 22, 2008 in the comfort of her home. Born in Utica on October 15, 1948, Susan is the daughter of Helen (Kupiec) Novak and the late Francis Novak. She was raised and educated locally and was a graduate of Whitesboro High School. On January 20, 1968 she married Ronald Hoole, Sr. with whom she shared a union of 23 years prior to his passing on January 19, 1991.

Susan was employed as an administrative assistant and stenographer with the Central New York Psychiatric Center in the education and training department, the position from which she retired in 1994. "Mother Hoole", as family and friends affectionately referred to her, was a woman blessed with a generous and selfless personality. She truly was kind hearted, and as a caregiver, helping others was paramount to the way she lived her life. Susan was known in the neighborhood to always have an open door for those in any need. Her children believed she had the heart of an angel, and Susan instilled her values in them by her example. Her greatest happiness in life came in raising her family and being actively involved in the lives of all her grandchildren. She loved Elvis concerts, Stephen King novels, and on occasion, enjoyed the machines at the Casino. She was a parishioner of the Catholic Community of Whitesboro at St. Paul's Church.

Susan is survived by daughters and sons-in-law, Colleen and Harold Crouch, Jr. of Whitesboro, and Terry and Joe Laurer of Clinton; her son and daughter-in-law, Ronald "Ron", Jr. and Laura Hoole of Floyd; her mother, Helen Novak, who resided with Susan; and her grandchildren who were the love of her life, Logan Crouch, twins, Kelly and Kayla Crouch; triplets, Joey, Cameron, and Jordan Laurer; and Ryan and Alex Hoole. Survivors also include many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, several cousins, with special mention of Carole Trask and Barb Cioch; her mother-in-law, Alice Hool, several in-laws; and many friends who were close to her heart, including Karen Baker-Robinson, and Nanna Flemma.

Visitation will be held Tuesday from 4:00-7:00 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc. 932 South St. corner of Hammond Ave. For those wishing to do so, please consider memorial donations in Susan's honor to the American Heart Association; envelopes will be available at the funeral home. Susan's funeral service will commence on Wednesday morning at 10:30 from the funeral home and at 11:30 at the Catholic Community of Whitesboro at St. Paul's Church where her Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated. Interment will take place at St. Stanislaus and Casimer Cemetery.

“ Terry, Joe , Colleen, Ron

I am so sorry for your loss. Sue and I were classmates and I know how much she looked forward to our class reunions. She loved all of you and she especially loved all of her grandchildren. She was so blessed to have a set of twins and a set of triplets as well as the the other beautiful grandchildren. I'm sure she will watch over all of you from heaven. God Bless.###imported-begin##Rita LaFayette###imported-end##

“ Dear Colleen and Harold and Family,
I was so saddened to hear of the passing of your mother. Every one of us at the preschool looked forward to seeing "Grandma Sue." She was always smiling and enjoying life--just the kind of Grandma I would like to be someday. My best to all of you, Karen Read###imported-begin##Karen Read###imported-end##

“ Colleen, Terri and Ron,
I was so sorry to read of your mom's passing. Both your mom and dad hold a special place in my heart. I have so many great memories of the two of them. Col, remember how we used to "pick at your mom" constantly and tease her about her clothes, hair. etc. AND THE PERM!! Remember the day WE gave her a perm!! We were KIDS!! She was an awesome 2nd mom to me and I know she will be missed terribly by all who had the pleasure of knowing her. You're in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Sue (Cox) Cianciosi##imported-end##

“ Dear Colleen, Ron and Family,
I am so saddened by the loss of your mom. Sue was a wonderful lady who I looked forward to seeing regularly at the preschool. It was always apparent that she adored her grandchildren by the smile on her face and the twinkle in her eye. I enjoyed hearing all of the hysterical childhood stories that Melanie had so often shared with me. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers.
