

Nancy (Dano) Hotaling

January 19, 1949 - May 26, 2007

Nancy (Dano) Hotaling, age 58, of Utica, passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, May 26, 2007, at the Faxon-St. Luke's Healthcare Center.

Born in Utica on January 19, 1949, Nancy was the daughter of the late Frank "Dusty" and Jeanne (Whitmarsh) Dano. She was raised and educated locally. At one time she was married to Raymond F. Hotaling.

Nancy's career as an executive assistant at the Mid York Library System spanned 20 years until her retirement in 2003.

As a loving, caring individual, Nancy was willing to listen, give advice, and provide a shoulder to cry on whenever she was needed. She was endowed with a sharp sense of humor and a spontaneous personality. Blessed with a strong maternal instinct, she was a protective 'mom' or 'nani' to everyone with whom she came in contact. In her spare time, she enjoyed solving crossword puzzles, knitting, and crocheting. She was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church, along with its Cell Group Bible Study.

Nancy is survived by her daughters and their families, Pam and Henry Jasek of Ilion, Radene Hotaling, and Rhonda Hotaling and Fred Hnelosub, all of Utica. She held close to her heart the memory of her daughter Lisa J. Giehl who preceded her in death on February 20, 1999. Also surviving are her grandchildren, Henry, Jr., Joe, Sarah, and Matt Jasek; Raymond, Robert, and Gina Giehl; Kristle, Zackary, and Lisa Hotaling; Courtney, and Amber Hotaling; and her great-grandchildren, Brooke Jasek, and Arianne Faith Edwards.

Always dear to her heart was her great-granddaughter, Lynzie Nichole Jasek

Wilson who preceded her. She also leaves her sister and brother-in-law, Sally and Michael Meier of Wake Forest, NC; her brothers, James Dano, and Donald Dano, both of Utica; her many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, and cousins. She also leaves her best friend, Jacque Empey; and her co-workers who loved her dearly. She was predeceased by her brother, Gerard Dano.

The family extends appreciation to Centro NY Dial-a-Ride, especially Marie, Anthony, Alan, and Dave. Thanks also to the Dialysis unit at the Faxton-St. Luke's Healthcare Center, especially Theresa, the Faxton-St. Luke's Healthcare Center Allen Calder Wing, and the Emergency Room.

Visitation will be held Wednesday (today) from 5:00 – 7:00 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. By family request, please omit floral offerings. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend Nancy's Celebration of Life which will commence on Thursday at 11:00 a.m. at Trinity United Methodist Church, 8595 Westmoreland Rd., Whitesboro, officiated by Rev. Marilyn Baissa.

“ Our deepest condolences to the family. It is with deep regret that I didn't keep in touch with your Mom. I had planned on calling her last week, but due to procrastination I missed out on talking to a real sweet and loving relative. Your Mom and I could really tell you some stories while we were growing up. Even though I was an "absentee" Uncle, I really thought of her and the rest of the family all the time. It really goes to show you of what can happen at any moment without notice. Always keep in touch with everyone and don't put it off for any reason. I am truly going to miss her with all my heart and soul. Love to all and may you rest easy that she is at peace now without any suffering. She is now with her Parents, and Grandparents watching over the rest of us. God Bless you all.
Love,
Uncle Bob and Aunt Yolanda from Idaho.##imported-begin##Bob and Yolanda Kiepprien##imported-end##

“ I am deeply saddened to learn of Nancy's passing. Unfortunately, the distance will prevent me from greeting her family in person. The years I worked with Nancy at Mid-York were greatly enhanced by her caring ways, and I will always cherish the memories of her kindness and warmth. May God bless all her family, who I am certain will never forget all the ways she enriched their lives.###imported-begin##Jeanne (Williams) Kline###imported-end##
