

Nicholas "Colo" Hernandez Flores

November 13, 1942 - February 9, 2012

Mr. Nicholas "Colo" Hernandez-Flores, age 69, formerly of New York City and more recently of Utica, passed away on Thursday, February 9, 2012 in the comfort of his home with his family by his side.

Nicholas was born in Barceloneta, Puerto Rico on November 13, 1942, the son of the late Nicholas Hernandez and Catalina Flores. At the age of 16, when he was affectionately known as "cowboy", he moved to New York City where he graduated from high school and attended college. A veteran of the United States Army, he honorably served his country for 1 year during the Vietnam Conflict. Colo shared a lifelong bond of friendship and support with Inocencia Rodriguez, a love that was blessed with 6 children.

Colo retired in 2003 after 20 years of employment at the Seward Park Housing Maintenance Department in Manhattan. Colo had a comic side to his personality and will be remembered as a jovial, smiling man who could be trusted to honestly share his thoughts. He created his own balance of life, and was happiest being with his family. During his spare time, he could be found at the Moore Street Market in Brooklyn, playing a game of dominoes with his friends. He also found pleasure in playing his guitar.

Colo is survived by his children's mother and her husband, Inocencia Rodriguez and Victor Astudillo; his children, Enid and Cesar Garcia, Ernesto and Yanira Alequin, Eneida Alequin, Giselle Hernandez and fiancé Argenis, Milixza Rodriguez and LeRoy Winston; preceded in death by his son, Jose Hernandez who passed away on February 9, 1997; and Anthony. Also left to mourn his passing are his grandchildren, Memphis, Abryle, Xavier, C.J.; Christine, Ernesto, Jr., Christian, Alexza; Adrian, Jose, Jr., Yaniel; Mya, Zaydee, A.J.; Sade and Brooklynn; several siblings, many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, and cousins.

The family extends sincere thanks to the staff of Hospice & Palliative Care, Inc., especially Irene and Julie; Dr. Randolph Snow, and Nurse Practitioner Brenda Carney, for their compassion and competence.

Visitation will be held Sunday from 2:00-4:00 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. Nicholas' funeral service and Celebration of Life will commence on Monday morning at 11:00 at the funeral home with Rev. Chris Tringali officiating. Graveside committal prayers and interment will follow at Forest Hill Cemetery.

“ It's crazy how time goes by as fast as 4yrs since you left us. Not a day goes by without us thinking about you! You're in a better place now, papi and the best part of it is, you get to watch over us every step of the way. Thank you for being the father you were to us and for always taking good care of us the way you did. Rest in paradise!!

“ Today, it has been a year since you left to a better place where there is no sickness, sadness, pain, or worries... You are helping God take care of us your family and you will continue to do so until we all reunited in heaven one day.. Unfortunately I have not had the opportunity to go visit you and take you flowers & you know why I am in FL and have not been to Utica since your funeral, but I promise that when I do get to visit you I will take you flowers and a beer lol "budwise" your favorite.. hope you are behaving in heaven lol well we have missed you dearly.. your jokes, fights and everything you were always a happy person always took care of us since we were little kids ofcourse we had our ups and downs but really what parent and kids dont...:) Wished you would had been with us a lil longer, CJ always remembers you and tells me " Mom... I only have 1 grandpa left" :(and it makes me really sad to hear him tell me that but my reply to him is that you will always be with us bc you are in our hearts and memories.. and that now you are in peace and that is what matters...

Love you and we will never forget you... Your Daughter Yvette..

“ It is a month today that you left us, and it seems like it was yesterday...R.I.P! we will always carry you in our hearts..

*I will never say goodbye to you my Father cause I know this is not the end for us to see each other.
You will only be going to a place where there's no pain nor suffering.
I am happy for you, for you will be with God.
For now we need to go in separate ways.
I'm very grateful and proud to call you my dad.
Here deep inside my heart you'll always be.
I remember the last time I hold you're hand and how you looked at me in the eyes.
If only I could turn back the time I would have never let you go.
I felt the world stops and my heart stop beating when they told me you're gone.....
How I wish I was only dreaming.
Just like the rain; tears fell down from my eyes, I couldn't speak for a while.
Thank you Dad....
For always understanding, listening , caring, and loving me for the rest of your life.
The greatest gift God gave me was YOU..... my Dad...
It's difficult to let you go but I must...
I must return the gift God gave me...
Till then;
See you in Heaven.....*

“ *Papi Colo, I love you so much and will miss and always remember you. I never really knew you alot but I was dround in tears when you passed away. Your the only grandpa I ever had. And I did look up to you and now your looking down at me. I cry so much when I think of you but as I cry im stoping and thinking how your in a better place and not suffering anymore. You were so strong. You slept with my favorite pillow case that I loved so much and left at mamas house. My favorite memory is of us playing cross word puzzle together. I love you always and forever. “ I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love. - Leo Buscaglia
