

Infant Nicholas Robert Myers

March 30, 2015 - May 25, 2015

Infant Nicholas Robert Myers became an Angel on Monday, May 25, 2015 as he passed away at Strong Memorial Hospital with his loving family by his side. Although his time on this Earth was brief, his 56 days brought much joy to his loved ones.

Born in Syracuse on March 30, 2015, Nicholas was the son of Lawrence “Larry” C. and Kimberly (Claeys) Myers. He was blessed with the gift of strength as he endured multiple medical obstacles with much courage. Through his expressive eyes, he let his parents know when he was happy or mad, and all in all, he had a beautiful disposition. When in the arms of his mom and dad, Nicholas had the best ‘vitals’ and the nurses always noted how aware he was of the love and peace he felt in their embrace. The koala bear that his brother Larry gave him was always by his side, and Larry did his best to call out his brother’s name which sounded like “Niches”. Then ‘big brother’ threw his ‘little brother’ 4 big kisses. Nicholas was also surrounded by a cuddly blue bear from his parents and a heart-shaped pillow from his nurses. On April 2, 2015 Nicholas was Baptized as one of God’s little ones. He was a blessing in his short time and leaves a multitude of memories and joy. Nicholas will always remain his parents’ precious baby and Larry’s little brother, and they will hold him again in Heaven one day.

Nicholas is survived by his parents, Larry and Kimberly; his brother, Lawrence Joseph, 22 months; his paternal grandparents, Larry and Cathy (DeCuffa) Myers; paternal great-grandmother, Anna Marie Convertino; and maternal grandparents, Jerry and Sandy (Massocco) Claeys. He was also loved by his aunts and uncles, Kimberly Myers and fiancé Michael Fanelli, and Kevin and Shilo Claeys and their son, Julius; his great-aunts and great-uncles, Judy Hathaway, David and Vicky Myers, and Ray and Camille Van Wie; his cousins, especially acknowledging Anthony and MaryAnn LaPolla, Dan and Kelly Hooge, Deanna and Scott Lombard, Salvatore and Annie Torchia, and Nicole Rossi; and family friends Erika and Barrett Hawes who were a wonderful source of support. He was predeceased by his paternal great-grandfather, David Myers; paternal step-great-grandfather, Frank J. Convertino; paternal great-grandparents, Dominick F. and Frances J. DeCuffa; and maternal great-grandparents, Plinio and Josephine Massocco, and Robert and Victoria Claeys.

It was the love and support of family, friends, and co-workers that truly made a difference. The concerned calls and caring messages made each day brighter. The family is grateful to Cardiologist Dr. Frank Smith at Crouse-Irving Memorial Hospital, and the doctors, nurses, and staff at Strong Memorial and Crouse-Irving for the loving, specialized care you provided to Nicholas and his family. Also to the Ronald McDonald House of Syracuse and The Ronald McDonald House Within The Hospital in Rochester. A very special thank you to The Femia and Chiffy Families and Parkway Drugs for all of their support and kindness.

Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend Nicholas' Votive Mass of the Angels which will commence on Saturday morning at 10:00 at St. Anthony & St. Agnes Church offered by Rev. Mark Kaminski and concelebrant Rev. Joseph Salerno. The family will receive visitors at the conclusion of Mass. Interment will take place in Calvary Cemetery at the convenience of the family. Arrangements have been entrusted to the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc. 932 South St. corner of Hammond Ave.

"The gates of heaven are so easily found when we are little, and they are always standing open to let children wander in."

“ Larry & Kim,
We are saddened by the loss of your baby boy, it sounds as if he had the heart of a true warrior , and the twinkle of an angel in his eyes. Our Lord now has a beautiful soul to nurture. My family will have you and yours in our prayers.
