

Nina Kryshchuk Pavlow

November 20, 1925 - March 6, 2008

Mrs. Nina Kryshchuk Pavlow, age 82, of Utica, passed away on Thursday, March 6, 2008 at the St. Elizabeth Medical Center with her loving family by her side.

Nina was born in Byelorussia on November 20, 1925 where she was raised and educated. At one time, she was wed to George Plonisch until his passing during World War II. In 1959 she shared in a second union with Anatole Pavlow who passed away in 1981.

Nina was a dedicated employee of the Ablove Linen Co. for 40 years. She enjoyed traveling, especially her trips to Jerusalem. She was a faithful and devoted member of St. John of Kronstadt Church and was also a director for her church choir for a period of 10 years.

Nina is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Igor and Christine Plonisch of North Utica; her daughter and son-in-law, Tania and Alexander Kalavazoff of Holland Patent; her grandchildren, Barbara and Major Bryan Edmunds and their children, Katherine and Lydia; Gregory and Kristy Plonisch, Michael Plonisch, Nicholas Kalavazoff, and Nadia Kalavazoff; and her nephew, Alexander Kryshchuk.

The family extends thanks to the entire staff of the Eden Park Nursing Home for the compassion care they provided to Nina.

The family will receive visitors on Saturday afternoon from 2:00–4:00 p.m. at St. John of Kronstadt Church, 1109 Conkling Ave. Nina's funeral service will commence on Sunday morning at 11:45 at the church. Interment will immediately follow at the Holy Trinity Monastery Cemetery in Jordanville, NY. Arrangements have been entrusted to the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave.

“ *Igor & Christine and family:
I was so sorry to hear of your loss. Nina had a long, blessed life, though, didn't she? I was so glad I had the pleasure of meeting her at Barb & Bryan's wedding.
Thoughts and prayers are sent your way.
Love,
Peggy McCleskey
