

Noemi (Rosado) Mercedes

May 21, 1981 - January 6, 2019

UTICA - Noemi (Rosado) Mercedes, age 37, passed away on Sunday, January 6, 2019 at MVHS at St. Elizabeth Medical Center encompassed by her loving family.

Born in Utica on May 21, 1981, Noemi was the daughter of Francisco Colon and Noemi Geigel. She attended Christopher Columbus Elementary School, JFK Middle School, and T.R. Proctor High School. In 2013 she married Felipe Mercedes, and together they shared common bonds and the blessing of a daughter.

A hard-working woman and provider, Noemi was employed as a Licensed Insurance Agent of the AA&J Car Insurance Company, now operating as Freeway Insurance. She always went out of her way to help people purchase insurance personalized to their needs, and no matter where she went, someone would recognize her and respected her advice. Noemi's outgoing personality and helpful nature were reasons for her successful career. She was beloved by the community and blessed for her compassionate character and commitment to her work. Her energy and desire to help others was endless. She was a confident and charming woman, and she presented herself well with her "perfect eyebrows"! And she was serious about that part of her appearance.

Noemi was a true caregiver. She was affectionate, offering hugs and kisses all the time. She loved to cook, and her delicious Spanish specialties were made with love. At Thanksgiving, she was the catalyst that brought loved ones together around the table to share in her buffet-style family banquet. She enjoyed the genre of bachata music, especially when she was cooking and cleaning. You could almost see her dancing about. She recently began to enjoy camping up North at the Kayuta Lake Campgrounds in the Adirondacks. She had a special love for her funny, four-legged little daughter “Abby” who protected her and was always at her side.

Noemi did her best to teach her children the virtues they would need to grow up to be good people, and to remember her and how much she loved them. She trusted the Lord and accepted him as her Savior. Noemi passed away peacefully, ...to a new beginning.

Noemi is survived by her two special loves, her son Januel “Macho” Mateo; and her daughter Estebania “Mia” Rosado-Mercedes; her dad, Francisco Colon and Sherry Tulej; and her mom, Noemi Geigel; and her siblings and their loves, Jalil “Papo” Hamid and Dina Rektic, Louie Geigel, Frank Colon and Nicole Seaver, Victoria Colon and Victor Gonzalez, Veronica Colon and Roberto Paredes, Valerie Goico, and Carmencita Rosado and Domingo Romero. She was also blessed with Angie Cruz who was her “right hand” and always by her side. Noemi was Titi to many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, and cousins.

The family is grateful for the compassionate care provided by the staffs of the Visiting Nurse Association and the Oneida Hospital/Cancer Center who touched Noemi’s heart in so many ways; and the personnel of the ICU at MVHS at St. Elizabeth Medical Center. They had the greatest support system, ever! Their hearts and hands are blessed from above.

Visitation will be held Saturday afternoon from 2:30-4:30 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. Noemi's funeral service and Celebration of Life will commence on Saturday afternoon at 4:30 at the funeral home directly upon conclusion of visitation.

“ My deepest Condolences, Thoughts & Prayers to all of Noemi's family. Noemi was a happy girl full of life, always smiling, her stories though she was animated made me laugh she was funny I got to work with her for a bit and saw her here and there from time to time we always stopped for a chat. Noemi was very giving and helpful she fought hard to the very end. Noemi, R.I.P. no more suffering baby girl. God has gained an awesome angel.

*Januel & family,
I am so sorry for your loss!
I didn't realize until this afternoon that your mom, Noemi, was one of my favorite students at JFK, back when she was Noemi Rosado. She loved life - and had a great sense of humor!
My condolences to family & friends. 🌹 Ms. Wolfe*
