

Patricia F. (Nester) Ciccone

October 5, 1928 - August 4, 2008

Mrs. Patricia F. (Nester) Ciccone, age 79, of Utica, passed away on Monday, August 4, 2008 at the Faxton-St. Luke's Healthcare Center with her loving family by her side.

Born in Flint, Michigan on October 5, 1928, Patricia was the daughter of the late Horace "Hod" and Frances (Mielnik) Nester. She was raised and educated in Utica and attended St. Francis DeSales High School. On February 18, 1947 she married Marshall H. Ciccone with whom she shared a blessed union of 60 years.

Patricia was a kind-hearted woman endeared to everyone who knew her. Her family was the spark of her life, especially her children, and they brought much joy to her. She instilled in them the values of perseverance and faith in fulfilling their goals in life. Cooking was her favorite pastime, but sewing was her passion. She fashioned many beautiful garments for her family and friends and will be most remembered for the Infant of Prague outfits she created. During her younger years, she enjoyed swimming and she also coached the St. Anthony minor league baseball team. She was devoted to her Catholic faith and offered prayers for all her loved ones and friends. She was a parishioner of St. Agnes Church.

Patricia is survived by her husband, Marshall; her daughters, Sharon A. Boehlert and her companion, Gary Sutch, of Utica, and Roxanne L. Ciccone of Micanopy, FL; her son and daughter-in-law, Marshall J. and Joan Ciccone of Syracuse; her grandchildren, Rhonda, Heather, Trevor, Megan, Donald, and Jared; and her great-grandchildren, Dominick Marshall, Ellie Grace, Hatie Catherine, and Ava. Survivors also include her brother and sister-in-law, John and Judy Nester of NH; her nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and sisters-in-law, Amelia Graziano of Utica, and Clara DePaul of CA. She also leaves behind many dear and cherished friends, too numerous to mention. She was predeceased by her sister, Mary Louise Grenafage; her nephew, Anthony J. Ciccone; and her in-laws, Henry M. and Marian Ciccone, and Bernadette and Gennaro D'Onofrio.

The family offers sincere thanks to the nurses and staff of the Faxton-St. Luke's Healthcare Center for the respect and care offered to Patricia.

Visitation will be held Thursday (today) from 4:00-7:00 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. Patricia's funeral service will commence on Friday morning at 10:00 from the funeral home and at 11:00 at St. Agnes Church where her Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated. Interment will take place in Holy Trinity Cemetery.

“ Dear Mr. Ciccone, Sharon, Roxanne and Marshall, Pat was a sweet woman, so in love with life. I truly admired her sense of humanity. She always welcomed me into her home and was a great cook- my first taste of Waldorf salad was at her table. She was a wonderful seamstress and had a flair for fashion. Pat also taught me to appreciate those old black and white movies. Heaven is enriched with her there. Suzy and Art##imported-begin##Suzanne Schafer Bakert##imported-end##

“ Patricia,
Although we never had the pleasure of knowing you we have had the great privilege of having your son and his family as dear friends these past thirty years. You must have been a wonderful mom and wife to have such a good family, and you will always live on in those who love you.

“ Grandma I'm going to miss you so much. I love you and I hope you are at peace with the Lord. He will take good care of you and you are free from all the pain you suffered recently. Give my love to Aunt Bessie and Uncle Jerry and all the rest of the family we've lost over the years. Watch over us when you can, we still need your blessings and prayers. All our love, The Homers##imported-begin##Heather (Ciccone) Homer##imported-end##
