

Mrs. Paula A. (Borgia) Nassimos

January 4, 1931 - March 24, 2017

WHITESBORO - Mrs. Paula A. (Borgia) Nassimos, age 86, a beloved mother who fought the good fight, passed away on Friday, March 24, 2017 at the Katherine Luther Residential Health Care & Rehabilitation Center.

Born in Utica on January 4, 1931, Paula was the daughter of the late Alexander Dominick and Josephine (Sabatano) Borgia. She was raised and educated locally. On September 12, 1948 she married Samuel H. Nassimos with whom she shared 54 years in a marriage of their era. Their priority was providing for their family and they sacrificed so their children could have a comfortable life and home. Sam passed away on March 5, 2003.

Paula was employed by the Presbyterian Home for Central NY for 11 years, retiring as a Certified Nurse Assistant. Although she worked hard at other local companies, she was first and foremost an impeccable homemaker, matriarch, and mother. Paula was a woman of character and she fiercely defended the well-being of her children, living up to the promise of "always being a mother". She was perceptive in providing wise advice to her children, persistent in meeting all her obligations at home and at work, and prudent in her judgments and choices in life. She embraced many mottos and adages from the past, and she was blessed with a great sense of humor. She was of Sicilian heritage and carried on the traditions of her unique Italian culture. Paula was an expert in Italian baking and she honored the holidays by preparing her delicious ethnic delicacies which she gifted to friends and family. Paula had strength in believing that she and Sam could build their own home, a project successfully completed with the help of loved ones and loyal friends. It was a home where they raised their family and had memories of many good times, good food, and good company. Her door was open to all. Paula participated in the popular 1970's pastime of ceramics and artfully created decorative pieces which are in vogue today. She had a special relationship with all her pets. She loved animals and appreciated their companionship.

Although Paula was living a different life during these latter years, she persevered in her struggle to maintain her dignity, and her faith in her Lord always prevailed. She was a parishioner of St. Louis Gonzaga Church.

Paula is survived by her children and their loved ones, Samuel H. Nassimos, Jr. of Utica and Lionel Brown, George A. Nassimos of Palm Springs, CA, and Anthony and Doreen

Nassimos of Madison, CT; her granddaughters, Alexandra, and Molly Nassimos; and her sister, Laura Giacona. She also leaves her nieces and nephews, especially acknowledging Joe and Sharon Nassimos; great-nieces, great-nephews, and cousins. She was predeceased by her brothers, Thomas Borgia, and Joseph "Butch" Borgia; and her sisters, Josephine Silvernail, Tillie Rosa, Lena Borgia, and Rose Trotta.

The family is grateful to the staff of the Willow wing of the Katherine Luther Residential Health Care & Rehabilitation Center as well as the staff of the physical therapy unit for their personal kindness and attention given to Paula.

“ We were so very happy to have time with Aunt Paula. She shared so many stories about growing up in East Utica, wonderful recollections of my father and it gave us a special insight to the past. We treasure our time with her. Her wit was wonderful and she recognized me and my family each time we visited. We thank God for being able to get and give happiness to each other. Fly high and free, Aunt Paula.

Love,

Dicky and Janis Borgia and family.

I'll miss you aunt Paula. It's not the same going to see Grandma without you greeting me in the hall on the way in. You would always smile the moment I seen you and you were smiling when I left you last week. I hope you enjoyed the half moons
