

Mrs. Pearl DeLuca

July 25, 1932 - November 25, 2016

Mrs. Pearl DeLuca, age 84, passed away peacefully on Friday, November 25, 2016 surrounded by her loving family.

Born in Washington, Pennsylvania on July 25, 1932, Pearl was the daughter of the late Joseph and Latizia (Martino) Aloia. She was raised and educated in Pennsylvania. On July 6, 1957 she was united in marriage to Frank DeLuca and in August of 1958 the couple moved to Utica. During their nearly 60 years of marriage, their lives were filled with love and laughter. They were supportive of one another and their activities centered around their family. Pearl spent years as a homemaker, raising her two beloved daughters. In later years, Pearl enjoyed working in the cosmetics department at Steinbach Department Store. She found this position truly fulfilling. Pearl was of the Catholic faith and upheld her Christian values.

Pearl was a very likable, outgoing woman with a very witty sense of humor. She was loved by all who were fortunate to know her. As the matriarch of her family, she had a strong, magnetic presence. She looked forward to cooking and preparing meals for family gatherings. Pearl's greatest accomplishment was her family. She shared a close bond with her grandchildren and in recent years welcomed two great-grandchildren whom she adored.

Pearl is survived by her husband, Frank; her daughters and son-in-law, Lori and Mark Mariano, and Lisa DeLuca, all of Utica; her grandchildren, Kristyn and Jason McHugh of East Greenbush, and Mark Mariano and Tracee Mustee of Whitesboro; her cherished great-grandchildren, Nolan and Gavin

McHugh; and her two sisters and brother, all of PA.

Pearl's Celebration of Life and Mass of Christian Burial will be officiated at the convenience of the family. Expressions of sympathy in the form of donations may be made to a charity of choice in Pearl's memory. Entombment will be conferred at Calvary Cemetery Mausoleum.
