

Providence "Provy" (Ducato) Coromato

May 21, 1919 - August 9, 2008

Mrs. Providence "Provy" (Ducato) Coromato, age 89, of Trenton Rd., North Utica, passed away on Saturday, August 9, 2008 at the Masonic Care Community of NY.

Born in Utica on May 21, 1919, Providence was the daughter of the late Benedetto "Benny" and Rosalie (Puleo) Ducato. She was raised and educated locally. In September of 1945 she married Anthony N. Coromato with whom she shared a loving and devoted union of 36 years prior to his passing on June 25, 1982.

At one time, Provy held a position with Burger's Department Store and later at the Boston Store. She will be remembered as a very caring and nurturing woman, especially in the hearts of her cherished grandchildren. Provy enjoyed tending to her houseplants, and she loved animals, especially dogs. She was a communicant of St. Agnes Church.

Provy is survived by her son, Richard Coromato of Utica; her grandchildren, Bryan A. Coromato and fiancée, Carrie Austin, Nicole Coromato, and Anthony N. Coromato II and Ashley Squires, all of Utica. Survivors also include her sister and brother-in-law, Ann and Thomas Graziano of Utica; her brothers and sister-in-law, Joseph and Angie Ducato, and Philip Ducato, all of Utica; her nieces; especially acknowledging her "favorite niece" Sheila Durante, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and in-laws. She was predeceased by her niece, Rosemary Kauth, her nephew, Wayne Rich; and her in-laws, Joseph and Josephine Coromato, Amelia and Peter Torchia, Frances and Joseph Rich, Rose and Sam Carlo, and Felma Ducato.

The family extends appreciation to the medical staff at the Masonic Care Community of NY for the care and love they offered Provy, especially acknowledging Shirley Rodriguez and Maryann Fredrick from the Rehabilitation Center at the Masonic home.

Visitation will be held Tuesday (today) from 5:00-8:00 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. Providence's funeral service will commence on Wednesday morning at 9:00 from the funeral home and at 10:00 at St. Agnes Church where her Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated. Interment will take place at St. Agnes Cemetery.

“ Nicole, Bryan, Ant or Rick I just wanted to send my deepest condolences to all of you. I know that it is extremely difficult at this time, loosing someone that you love so dearly, who was such an inspiration in life. Provy was such a blessing to your family and I. I will always remember her cooking and cleaning for us, as well ironing all of our clothes for school. She had such a great passion and heart for all of you and life. We will all miss her very much. Know that all of you and Provy our in my prayers. I love and miss all of you so much. God Bless My heart goes out to you and know that I am here for you.##imported-begin##Lara Seamon##imported-end##

“ Byran,

I am terribly sorry to hear about the loss of your grandmother. She is in heaven with your grandpa laughing, smiling, and catching up on the last 26 years. Take comfort in knowing she is painfree and happy. May God give you extra strength during this difficult time.

You and your family are in my thoughts.

Fondly,

“ Rick & Children

I was saddened to hear about the passing of "Mrs. C.!"

My memories of her have always been of a classy, lovely woman, who personified a wonderful family!

Having experienced a loss not too long ago, I very well know what you are feeling. Be strong for one another, and cherish and relish all the memories that each of you have.

Our prayers and sincerest wishes are with you all.

“ Dear Bryan, Nicole & Anthony,

I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your Grandmother. She was always very nice to me and I will remember her in my prayers. I pray that each of you will find comfort in remembering the good times you shared with provy. Sorry I live so far away and won't be able to attend the services. I am thinking of you and praying you will receive comfort knowing she is in a better place with our loving Father.
