

Mr. Robert "Bobby" Hoyle

December 24, 1969 - April 9, 2020

DEERFIELD - After a long, courageous battle, Robert "Bobby" Hoyle, finished the race with his two girls, Cara and Kyleigh by his side holding his hands. He was called home to be with the Lord on Holy Thursday, April 9, 2020.

Robert was born on December 24, 1969. He is the son of Lois Hoyle of Marcy, NY and the late Eugene "Geno" DiFondi Jr. of Sun City, Arizona. Robert attended Utica schools and it is there where he met his lifelong soulmate, Cara Bolton. They were married at St. Anthony's Church on September 11, 1993 and were blessed with almost 27 beautiful years of marriage. On November 27, 1996 Robert's princess, and pride and joy, Kyleigh was born. They shared such a special bond. She was always daddy's little girl, and from the moment she was born, she always made him so proud. Robert's whole world revolved around Cara and Kyleigh, his "two girls."

Robert worked for several years for the Oneida County Court System and then attended and graduated from both NYS Corrections Officer Academy and NYS Court Officer Academy. He was currently employed at Midstate Correctional Facility as a NYS Correctional Officer and worked at multiple Correctional Facilities including Greenhaven, Coxsackie, Auburn, and Cayuga.

Robert enjoyed life, whether it was taking a family vacation, taking a Sunday drive, playing a board game, or just watching a movie at home. He didn't care what he did as long as he did it together as a family with Cara and Kyleigh. Robert was a HAM radio operator with a call sign of KC2MHE. He enjoyed riding his motorcycle with his buddy, John Murphy. He loved to barbecue and smoke foods in his backyard. He and Cara spent countless hours canning pickles and making salsa. Sundays were "Hoyle Family Fun Day", and making memories was always a priority. He was the best husband and dad anyone could ever wish for, and he is already so missed.

Robert leaves behind so many that will miss him very much: his best friend/wife, Cara; his precious daughter, Kyleigh; his mother, Lois; sister, Jennifer Voce; special niece and nephew, Kaitlyn and Kevin (who was like a son to him); great nephew, Caleb; brothers, Christopher DiFondi and Anthony DiFondi; sisters, Mary Difondi, Michelle Woodcock, Beth Difondi, and Karen Sorrell; in-laws, Joanne Warner and Francis Bolton; brother-in-law, Bryan and Rebecca Bolton; nieces, Isabella and Baylee; lifelong childhood friend "brother", Bill DeNigro; and his good friend, Tim Jolls. Robert was predeceased by his father Eugene DiFondi Jr.; brother, Eugene DiFondi III, father-in-law, David Warner; and his grandparents, Gerald and Theresa Hoyle. During his four year battle with cancer, Robert became very close with the Lord. His faith and being able to help others became a top priority. He reached out and touched the lives of so many, always with the intent to comfort and point their eyes to our Lord. He sent "Get Well" and "Thinking of You" cards to people he had never even met. If he found out someone was sick or battling cancer, he wanted their address so he could get a card out to them. He always started the card with, "Hello, my name is Bob Hoyle. You don't know me but I wanted to tell you I'm praying for you." On March 20, 2020, just a few weeks before Robert's death, he sat in his chair in the living room and asked, "What can I do from this chair to help our community with the COVID-19 pandemic?" He prayed on it and came up with the idea of starting a Facebook group called "Helping Hands COVID-19." The group exploded overnight and currently has over 3,300 members. There have been many families helped because of this group.

Redeemer Church had become his second family. Pastor Jim Synakowski was always there for Robert whether it was making visits to him while he was hospitalized or just enjoying coffee in his living room. Pastor Jim spent many hours sitting and talking with Robert about Jesus and our salvation. On August 3, 2019, Robert was water baptized at Redeemer Church, accepting Jesus as his Lord and Savior. Robert was very proud about his baptism and told everyone he knew.

The family would like to thank Dr. Alicia Detraglia at MVHS, Dr. Jessica Lin at Massachusetts General Hospital, and Dr. Michael Seth Rabin at Dana Farber Cancer Institute.

In lieu of flowers, please consider making a gift to ROS1 lung cancer research in Robert's honor. Donations can be made on the following website: www.giving.massgeneral.org/target (please designate "Targeting a Cure for Lung Cancer Fund"). Alternatively, checks can be made to Massachusetts General Hospital. In the memo line, please note that the tribute is in honor of Robert Hoyle, designated to Targeting a Cure for Lung Cancer Fund. The checks can be made to the following address: Carrie Powers, Development Office, Massachusetts General Hospital, 125 Nashua Street, Suite 540, Boston, MA 02114.

A celebration of Life will be held at Redeemer Church on Herkimer Road in Utica in the future.

During this time of social distancing that we are all experiencing, please take a moment to connect with Robert's family through the "Memories" section of his obituary on our website, www.eannacefuneralhome.com. Our prayers go out to all as a sign of our continued support.

“ I tried to post a memory and give my condolences in an earlier try, but I just wanted to let Jennifer and Lois know that I am sorry for their loss and I had known Bobby and his family since I was a kid and he was always the most polite gentle person, that my mom would say, "Why can't you be more like Jennifer and Bobby?" That shows the impact someone can have on another years later. He was a great guy. I'm sorry for your lost and the delay. Sincerely, Bob Dziezynski, Los Angeles, California.

“Lois, I am so sorry about the loss of your son, Bobby. I heard many wonderful things about him and what a great Husband and Father he was. The memories I have of Bobby is with him, Michele and Carlene when I used to babysit for him. He was the chubbiest, cutest little boy. And he sure did he like his Spagetti-o's. So sorry for his battle and the loss that his wife and daughter are dealing with. May Jesus embrace him and welcome him Home. - Diane

“Dear Lois, Cara and Kyleigh, Though I didn't personally know your son/husband/Dad, you could tell from that smile and lovely obituary what a loving and memorable person he was and how very many lives he touched over the years. Lois, from my 6th grade heart and Miller St school friendship with you, I cannot imagine how difficult this must be for you to lose your son. I recall sitting with you and Linda F. at Munson Williams Proctor First Friday and your reaching out for prayers for Bobby. I only hope that he had some respite from that time to now when he succumbed to the disease. May God help you all to gain some peace and support from all your many friends and extended family...Janet Kakaty George

I've never forgotten what he did for me when I was just 12 or 13 years old when he jumped down from his second floor porch! We will always have great memories from growing up together on Blandina Street. Cara, my heart breaks for you. You took such great care of him and he appreciated you more than anything. I hardly know you but it doesn't matter because I have prayed for the three of you since my dear cousin Joanne shared the news with all our cousins. We were in awe over how your husband/father fought his illness for the love of life, for the love of you. It is inspiring to hear you tell about his life and journey.

When you love much, having to say "Till we meet again" is that much harder. I'll continue praying for you.

“ So crazy. You grow up with some people from kids over the years. You remember time flys bye you turn around and we are kids no more. Growing up on the streets of Utica you dont realize the connections even if they are short ones. Bobby was always a good guy. I can still picture him with his long hair in the back all bushy sometimes with a hat on as we passed each other at times as both of of would say to each other hey Bob hey Rich what are you up to man. I always remembered his family. You get older and people go there own ways look for a life to live but never forgot fleeting moments growing up with friends who come from the same place as you and understand the unspoken things and vibes from being a Utican. It is a sad thing when a good person is taken. Im Glad I knew you Bobby rest in peace my friend. Rich Matthews

“ Bob and I are just devastated about Bobby's passing. My heart goes out to Cara, Kyleigh, Lois, Jennifer and all of the family. Bobby grew into such a wonderful man who loved his family deeply. He was obviously loved by all those who came into his life. I am glad he is pain free and can fly with the angels. He will be there always for all of you. Just look for the signs. One of my favorite versus from the bible is as follows and I think it is appropriate now - 2 Timothy 4:6-8 New International Version (NIV) 6 :

"For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time for my departure is near. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing. "

“ My precious husband, I miss you so much already. This house and our life is so empty without you here with us. The pain that I feel is indescribable and unbearable. A pain I never wanted to feel. Honey, although I look around and I don't see you in your chair, or here to talk to, I am trying to remember and find comfort in knowing that you are with Jesus! You are in His glorious kingdom free of pain, free of suffering, free of oxygen tanks, free of cancer and free of death. Tomorrow is Easter Sunday. The day Jesus rose from the grave. The reminder that He paid the price for us all and because of that someday Kyleigh and I will be reunited with you again in paradise, a place free of death! So once we're reunited, I will never ever have to say good bye to you again. Honey, I love you and miss you so much. Enjoy the next chapter my love. Save a seat for me, I'll be there soon 💔

“ I am deeply saddened to get the news of Bob's passing but I have the assurance that he has met his Lord and Savior face-to-face and that he has heard the words; "Well done my good and faithful servant". While he is now free from his physical pain, I know that his passing leaves heartache for those left behind. My husband was a recipients of one of those get well cards. Bob and I had spoken at work about each of their struggles with the cancer plaguing their bodies. Shortly after that, he had a card for me to deliver to my husband and it did start; "Hello, my name is Bob Hoyle. You don't know me but I wanted to tell you I'm praying for you.". While I really didn't know him well other than as "Officer Hoyle", I can say he blessed everyone whose paths crossed his and he will truly be missed.

I remember the research that brought you to Dana Farber and how you as a family fought to make his life and well being your top priority . Along the way you found a new and more meaningful Faith and it sustained you throughout the battle . My admiration for you grew by leaps and bounds as I saw the strength you two had as a couple . My heart aches for you and I know that your love is eternal and will always glow bright ! And from there are FRIENDSHIP started. You were ALWAYS there for no matter if we were talking or pissed off at each other. We would bash heads but NOTHING ever kept us apart for to long. We have shared memories that I will never forget and I promise you as long as I live your name will never be forgotten. Everytime I listen to Fade To Black I will remember us cutting our hands in Proctor park saying “ Now we are BROTHERS for life” So as sad and broken as I am I know that your pain is gone, your breathing on your own and your watching over your TWO GIRLS, your family & your friends! “ I am so saddened to hear of your loss. I didn't know Bob only through Redeemer but what I know of him is what a loving, kind person he was. I knew he had lung cancer and I knew he wanted to start a Facebook page to help others during this Corona virus pandemic and being a part of that page was amazed to see the response and offers of help come pouring in. Just this last act of service to reach out to others when he himself was failing in his health spoke volumes to me. Prayers and the comfort of the Lord be with you and your family. Robin Wrench

“ So very sorry for your loss. I was once one of Bobby's courthouse cronies, and you never had an interaction with him where you didn't laugh or at least smile. My mom was one of those he reached out to with a card as she battled her own lung cancer, and I was completely touched by his gesture of compassion. Sadly, she lost her fight 3 weeks before him. I messaged him after her death and he comforted me by saying she has reached her heavenly reward. Now so has he.

“ Such a beautiful tribute to a beautiful person. We will always remember Rob's love, prayers, encouragement & support for myself and my husband Paul. Rob was always kind and would tell me numerous times that we were in his daily prayers. As he was fighting cancer, he would always be thinking of others. May God bless him & his family now and forever. Love, Christine & Paul Schieble

“ He was a special guy, I miss my tri-weekly salon visits with him. I could count on seeing him every third Saturday at 8:00am he always had stories to tell, and a smile. He will he missed. Find joy in his memories. Love to you all

“ Cara and Ky, my dear friend. Please find peace in knowing he is being held in Jesus's arms. He is free of his suffering. He fought a battle that many would have given up a long time ago. You were both blessed to have such an amazing man a part of your lives. Remember all those memories you have with him, he will be watching over both of you until you can meet again. I love you both. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Every time I ever saw him he was always smiling and more than willing to help anyone. xoxo. God is with you <3

“ Cara, Kyleigh, Lois and Jennifer I have no words to express the sadness felt over Bobby. I know this is devastating to all of you, but I am firmly convinced he will ALWAYS be walking beside each of you every minute of every day. He was such a strong person and courageous. He fought the fight until he no longer could. He will live on in the memory of all who had the honor to know him. Sending you much love. Please call if there is anything we can do.
