

Robert A. Raiano

Mr. Robert A. Raiano, age 76, a native Utican, passed away in the Chicago, Illinois area after a courageous battle of many years with multiple sclerosis. Born in 1930, Robert was the youngest son of the late Alfonso and Josephine (DiRuzzo) Raiano. He proudly served in the military and was a veteran of the Korean Conflict. A talented musician and vocalist, Robert played the piano in numerous clubs and the finest eateries in New York City. He had been employed by the Casazza Trucking firm in the Chicago area which is where he made his home for the past 30 years.

Robert is survived by his brother, Luke Raiano and family of New Hartford; and his nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, and cousins. He was predeceased by his brothers and sisters-in-law, Andrew, Sr., and Josephine Raiano, Thomas Raiano, and Alexander T., Sr., and Rose Raiano; and his sisters and brothers-in-law, Theresa and Arthur Dischiavo, Marion and Anthony Zaino, Angeline Raiano, Louise and Richard Donnelly, and Carmella and Anthony Medici.

Robert has been laid to rest alongside his family in the Resurrection Chapel Mausoleum.

Arrangements had been entrusted to the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave.

Tribute Wall

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you at your time of loss. From what my family has told me, he was a great man. May he rest in peace.

Much love, Andrea Raiano. (Daughter of Andrew T Raiano II)
###imported-begin###Andrea Raiano###imported-end###

June 28, 2007 at 09:08 PM

“ Sincere Sympathy,

Dorothy Donnelly Darby
###imported-begin###Dorothy Donnelly Darby###imported-end###

June 27, 2007 at 11:07 AM