“ Thinking of my Mom and Dad today as always. Their unfailing love for each other has inspired so many, and me more than ever. I imagine them dancing in each others arms in the heavens. Save a big cloud dance floor for all of us!

“ As I think back to my younger years my memories include times he spent doing things with and for his family. I remember making a doghouse with him. I remember the fun times at Grandma and Grandpas, especially playing in the basement with my cousins. I remember camp. I remember the trips to Florida and how welcome he made us feel at his home. I remember the birthday and holiday phone calls long distance. I cant lie, it was tough living so far away from him and Grandma. I moved down to Florida in my early twenties and I recall the way they made me feel secure knowing I had them in the same state as me finally. Then recently I was able to reestablish a strong bond with him. When I moved down there he allowed me to live with him and get on my feet. I will never forget how he made me feel. Hard to describe in words but I can say this. He did things all day and everyday that amazed me and made me feel special to call him Grandpa. Weather it was making me breakfast at age 91, bringing me food home from the senior center or sitting there watching him balance his check book . I can also honestly say he was the best roommate I ever had. We watched sports every night together, sometimes sitting there for long periods of time not talking, other times we would deeply conversate about the old days. I cherish every moment I got to spend with him. I feel blessed to have had that time to learn more about what I already knew. What a great man , Grandfather, Father and husband he truly was. I will miss ya Gramps!!! O'Neil!!!!!!! haha

“ My Grandpa Roc is a truly amazing man!!! He is the most thoughtful and loving gentleman, I have so beautiful memories of him that will forever live in my heart. Although I will never get another endearing pinch on my cheek from him again, it comforts me to know he is with his sweetheart again, Grandma Dorothy.

I was the luckiest girl to have him there on my wedding day to give me his blessing.

Together they will watch over our family from the heaven above.

*Love,
Brenda & Michael*

“ We have been blessed to have had the chance to spend three months this year as well as three months last year with this wonderful man.

Never once did we feel like his house was not our own. He always made us feel comfortable. We never thought twice to help ourselves to anything we wanted.

When we sat down to watch TV he would give us the remote and say "You don't have to watch this, watch what you want." He was just happy to have us there. When he couldn't stay up any longer he would say "Sorry, I have to go to bed now," although he fought to stay up as long as he could.

Every morning he would say good morning to everyone and always asked "Bernie, how do you feel?" He never forgot to ask how I felt. He was always so with it.

We would go out to dinner and when he was ready to leave he would say "Let's blow this joint!"

*Love,
Bernie and Rock*
