“ So sorry to hear about Roger's passing. He was such a nice guy that fit right in with our Oneonta crew. And, even though we weren't able to get-together as often as we would have liked, we still always stayed friends and had such a great time! Peace & Love Always, Sue Rocco

“ *Roger was a great individual. Never had a bad word to say about anyone. The last time we spoke was about three years ago when i was in town and we went to lunch with Phil Durante. The conversation was like I never left Utica. He was as gracious as he was when we were younger.
My thoughts and prayers go out to his entire family.. may he restin peace in the arms of our Lord.*

“ Roger was a true gentleman, devoted husband and a family man. He was humble and was kind and helpful to everyone. He loved to listen to Polish music while setting up a barbecue for his family and friends. I known him as a friend for many years and he would always help me out. My friends would ask me where my tools were and I would say Rogers house.

My thoughts and prayers go out to Mary, Maria and Roger. He will be missed. Ed Keyes
