“ Too many memories to mention. I first knew Rose when i was kid. My family would go to her home for Bible study. I worked with her often in the ministry. To this day i still have fond memories of these times. Rose didn't realize it at the time but she had a great affect on me as a fellow servant of Jehovah. Her faithful zeal for pure worship was unmatched in my opinion. She never let anyone or anything stop her from having a relationship with her heavenly father. I also admired her honesty as a young person . If she thought you were doing something wrong she would tell you. I can remember to this day things that she said to me or i heard her say that helped mold me into the person i am today. Some may say she lacked tact. I saw it different. She loved Jehovah and nothing else matters. One of my favorite memories is when a group of us young ones in the congregation went to go see the movie " Back to the future". We invited Rose and she came with us. i remember asking her after if she enjoyed the movie. She said " That was crazy". I look forward to seeing her again in the near future when she takes her place among all of those resurrected back to a paradise earth.
