“ We visited Rose during the Fall of 2004, at her home in Utica. She was a gracious, lovely hostess, and made us feel completely welcome. We knew Rose to be a a lively, energetic lady with a lot of spunk and a wealth of love for her family. Although we will all miss her, we know that her passing will be especially hard on Mary Lou, Tricia, and Mike. The world will be a less interesting place without her in it.##imported-begin##Sondra and Robert Morgan##imported-end##
