

RoseMarie (Bottini) Banas

July 6, 1956 - May 29, 2008

RoseMarie (Bottini) Banas, age 51, of Utica, passed away unexpectedly on Thursday, May 29, 2008 at home.

Born in Utica on July 6, 1956, RoseMarie is the daughter of Antoinette “Toni” (Mazza) Bottini and the late Joseph L. Bottini. Raised and educated locally, she was a graduate of T. R. Proctor High School.

During her working career, RoseMarie had been employed by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., the Marcy Psychiatric Center, the N.Y. State Taxation & Finance Dept., and lastly at Mohawk Valley Community College. Fun-loving at heart, she was always laughing and bringing joy to people with her endearing personality, winning the affection of her friends and loved ones. The past few years she devoted herself to caring for her mother; they shared a closeness and she considered her mother to be her best friend. Their best times were shared doing crossword puzzles and watching comedies on television.

RoseMarie is survived by her beloved mother, Toni; and her special sisters who loved her so very much, and their families, Adele E. and Robert K. Pacilio of New Hartford, and Helen A. Trotta and Steven Semeraro of Utica. Although never blessed with children of her own, she shared a special bond with her niece, Nicole Trotta. Survivors also include her uncles and aunts, Frank and Josephine Mazza, Magdalene “Nellie” Eadecola, Louise Moccaldi, and Helen Gerdano; many cousins; and her special friend, Dave Kane. She was predeceased by her brother-in-law, Joseph Trotta. She always held close to her heart the memory of her dog, "DiBo" who brought her much companionship and comfort.

Visitation will be held Sunday from 4:00-5:00 at St. Mary of Mt. Carmel/Blessed Sacrament Parish, 648 Jay St., Utica. By family request, please omit floral offerings. RoseMarie's Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Sunday afternoon at 5:00 at the church immediately upon conclusion of visitation.
