

Roxanne Marie "Jewel" (Hubbard) Robey

September 25, 1966 - September 9, 2012

Roxanne Marie "Jewel" (Hubbard) Robey, age 45, of Utica, passed away unexpectedly on Sunday, September 9, 2012 in the comfort and dignity of her home.

Roxanne was born in San Francisco, California on September 25, 1966. She attended Mohawk Valley Community College as a student in the Medical Office Assistant degree program.

Roxie was caring, polite, respectful, and considerate of others, and always willing to help. She was a good listener with sound, intelligent advice, a kind heart, and a good soul. Roxanne knew in her heart the happiness of life's ups and the hardships of the downs. Her journey in life began in San Francisco before she finally settled in Utica. Her travels lead her to several different states on the way including Arkansas, Vermont, New York and Texas, where she learned about various trades and business opportunities. She enjoyed cooking, reading (with a fondness for mysteries, SI-FI and horror novels), working on the computer, and social networking.

When she was in Albany, New York, Roxie met Paul Migliaccio, and it was the beginning of a five-year loving union for them. They enjoyed their time together, ventured on many day trips especially to Old Forge and area attractions where Roxie enjoyed the water and wildlife. Paul and Roxie shared a very special bond and a reciprocal love for each other. Paul cherished her smile and Roxie appreciated his ability to respect her, love her, and make her happy.

Roxie is survived by her companion, Paul Migliaccio and his family; her close friends including Lynda Cushing, Chris Cushing, Penny Fumia, Maggie and John Copper, Sylvia and Larry, John, Lynda, and Kathy; and the memory of her 3 children. She also enjoyed the company of her feline companions. She was predeceased by her infant son, Kenny.

The family extends heartfelt thanks to Dr. William Jorgenson P.C.P., D.O, and Dr. Francis Migliaccio, for their excellent care over the years.

Family and friends are respectfully invited to attend a Memorial Gathering in honor of Roxanne which will be held Friday evening from 5:30 to 6:30 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. Roxie's funeral service and Celebration of Life will commence on Friday evening at 6:30 at the funeral home immediately upon conclusion of visitation with the Rev. Chris Tringali officiating the ceremony.

Roxanne went through hell herself and did the best she could for her children. She always was said that she lost custody and the location of her children. Make no mistake about it she loved you all.

“ When I first met Roxy,I had no idea how important she would become in my life. My happiest memories of her (and there are many) was how her face would light up when she'd tell the story of the day she met Paul. I became her big sister,she was/is my little siss and a beautiful Aunt to my daughter whom she never failed to refer to as her niece.

I miss you siss,though I know you will always and forever be in our heart.

Although my heart is breaking, I feel blessed to have been your friend these past ten years Roxie. It was plain to see the happiness in your smile every time you looked at Paul. I am so glad you found each other and shared such happiness with your soulmate in life.

We will miss you deeply, and treasure our memories.

Thank you for being part of our lives sweet lady. You will live forever in our hearts..

“ Jewel was always smiling and there to help for anyone who needed it. Want a hug? She was a great hugger! Her eyes always sparkled...and why not?....she had found Paul and radiated her love for him!

I'll cry because she's gone, but smile because I knew her.

Over the past five years Roxanne was my precious jewel, to be cherished, guarded and held to admire. She brought a new light into my life when it was the darkest of times; joy at all times and a true soul-mate. Her love will be missed but never forgotten; her smile and wit remembered and her touch relived in all of my found memories.

May the Lord welcome my precious jewel through the gates of heaven and grant her eternal rest and peace.

“ I remember even though Jewel was a quite lady that when she spoke you always stopped to listen because she was intelligent and had a lovely sense of humor. She had a great love for Paul and her friend that knew no bounds. I loved taking wine tours with her. I will miss her greatly!
