

Ryan W. Aumiller

June 14, 1966 - March 9, 2012

Mr. Ryan W. Aumiller, age 45, of Utica, a cherished husband, father, brother, nephew, uncle, and friend, passed away unexpectedly Friday March 9, 2012 in the privacy of his home.

Ryan was born Ryan Willis Aumiller on June 14, 1966 in Albany, NY, the youngest child of the late Richard and Gloria (Cappallo) Aumiller. Ryan attended school in Liverpool NY, graduating from Liverpool High School in 1984 and going on to SUNY College Oswego where he received a Bachelors of Fine Arts degree in Graphic Design. After working a short while in Graphic Design, Ryan's gifted technical skills led him to start his own company, Computer and Business, Inc. which later became Ryan Macintosh Solutions. As the economy began to limit his business opportunities Ryan accepted a position at the Munson Williams Proctor Arts Institute including the Pratt School of Art working as a computer technician; a position he loved.

However, little did Ryan know that renting an apartment above Pizza Heaven in 1992 would lead him to find his own Heaven on Earth; his family. What started as a friendship, would, with one subtle hand hold at the movies, forge an eternal bond with the woman who would become his loved and cherished wife of over 16 years, Donna M Coppola. Ryan and Donna shared a love, devotion, and passion that anyone would aspire to find, yet so few do. In 2001, Ryan and Donna were again blessed with their greatest gift, their daughter Danielle. Ryan so loved his "favorite girl" Danielle and shared every interest and adventure with her, and especially loved their "Father/Daughter"

Tuesday Dates.

As a young boy, Ryan's extraordinary artistic ability and creativity stood out, in his sketching, his singing, his school projects, etc., he was magically creative and gifted with both his hands and mind. As technology advanced, so did Ryan's ability to express himself as the digital era would provide Ryan an ideal median to express his heart and soul through music. With no formal music training and only as a hobby, Ryan demonstrated his talent as a singer, guitarist, and musician, composing and performing several original songs to be treasured by his family. Ryan was quick-witted, fun-loving, and always had a smile upon his face. Ryan's repertoire of impersonations and sense of humor made every family gathering a complete joy. Ryan had the unique ability to diffuse stress with laughter and bring out a smile in the most difficult of situations.

In addition to music, Ryan's many hobbies and passions included fishing, jet-skiing, enjoying local music, supporting numerous local charities, and spending time at his family cottage on the Great Sacandaga Reservoir in the foothills of the Adirondacks, but most of all being with his wife, daughter, family, and friends. He was a parishioner of St. Mark's Church.

Remaining to forever cherish Ryan's memory are his wife, Donna; and his precious daughter, Danielle; his brother and sister-in-law, Richard W., Jr. and Mary Aumiller of Clarence Center, NY; his sister and brother-in-law, Robyn and Greg Low of N. Syracuse; his maternal grandmother, Virginia Cappallo; nieces and nephews, Jon, Kevin, Cameron; Alexandra "Allie"; and Joey; aunts and uncles, Sharyn Cappallo, Kevin and Linda Cappallo, and Renee and Bruce Randall; great-aunts, great-uncles, and cousins; father-in-law, Philip C. Coppola; in-laws, Lori and Joseph White, and Steve Coppola; aunts and uncles of the Coppola family, especially acknowledging Virginia Coppola and her daughter Tina; and the many wonderful friends with whom Ryan was blessed throughout his life. Ryan was predeceased by his mother and father Gloria and Richard Aumiller; his maternal grandfather, Willis Cappallo; paternal grandparents, Walt and Connie Aumiller; and his mother-in-law, Dorothy A. Coppola.

Though tragically short, Ryan leaves a legacy of life, love and devotion, and will be greatly missed by all of his family and friends. Ryan will never be forgotten as his kindness, love, and friendship touched the lives of all those who have been blessed to know him. God Bless you Ryan as you are together again with your mom and dad. We love you.

The family would like to acknowledge the dedication of the Deerfield Volunteer Rescue Team; Donna's sister, Lori for her valiant efforts; the St. Elizabeth Medical Center for their sympathy, and comfort; and Sue Cooper for her support and compassion. Donna wishes to thank her family and all the many wonderful friends for their support, love, and devotion.

Visitation will be held Tuesday from 3:00-6:00 at St. Mark's Church, 440 Keyes Road, North Utica. Ryan's funeral service and Celebration of Life will commence on Tuesday evening at 6:00 at St. Mark's Church immediately upon conclusion of visitation, where his Mass of Christian Burial will be offered. In lieu of floral offerings, expressions of sympathy in the form of donations may be made to the family to enable the establishment of a scholarship fund for Ryan's daughter; envelopes will be available at the service. If you are unavailable to be present at the service or obtain an envelope, remembrances may be sent to the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc. 932 South St., Utica, NY 13501 and will be forwarded to the family.

Donna...It's been a while since we've spent any time together, but I remember how happy Ryan made you when he came into your life, and have seen on facebook the songs he wrote, and sang in love and devotion to both you and Danielle.

I also remember the time you and Ryan came to my house and we had such fun horseback riding. May your memories of him be always sweet, and if you ever need an ear, I'm always only a call away my friend

“ Dear Donna,
It has been a while since I've seen either you or Ryan and the words of his passing hit me like a ton of bricks. The weight on my heart remains heavy as I struggle to comprehend the loss you and your daughter Danielle are feeling. I am truly so sorry. Ryan was a gift from god. A gift to all of us who knew him. He brought something genuine and good to every person he met. A true friend. Everyone who knew Ryan is better for it today. We will all miss you Ryan!

We'll miss hearing Ryan singing at the top of his lungs while mowing the lawn or taking a diving lunge to catch on of our dogs who got free or just the great chats we had. Remember the good times. Donna, when you hear the coyotes, don't be afraid were right next door.

“ Donna & Danielle,
I am so sorry for your loss and pain. I first remember Ryan when he would be picking up Danielle and I would be picking up Cameron from daycare when they were growing up. We had some good conversations on those days and he was really fun to be around. I really am glad that I got to know him more as a friend, but it was way too short. He is honestly one of the most true people I have have ever known and I can tell how much he really cared for the both of you. Just remember he will always be with you and watching over you and i hope you can find some comfort in the days ahead.

If you need anything, please let us know... R.I.P Ryan

“ Donna & Danielle :
I remember the first time I saw Ryan, picking up Danielle at Summer Fun @ Lourdes about 3 to 4yrs ago.. I thought there is one devoted Husband & Father.. It was a year later that we saw you at Herkimer County Fair and I put two and two together.. as you were a Whtb Warrior too. We chatted for a while and then the next year we saw you again and we chatted about your pool...I really didn't know you both but from those little conversation we had I know how you were a Loving Family... May you find comfort in the days years ahead... R.I.P.Ryan

“ What can one really say or write to express themselves during a time like this. I was five years old when I met Ryan on the still unpaved road in our development in Liverpool. Unlike these days, life was simple, choices of the day were exploring on the trails near our houses, kick ball, listening to music, or going to Electronics Park. I can still remember you and your brother Rick competing for the loudest stereo's with Rick's Panasonic Thrusters (just like it was yesterday). Or the times the two of you would play guitar together in that crowded bedroom you two shared. I can remember the big sleep out's in the tent in the backyard where we fought to stay awake to listen to Mystery Theatre on 620. I dont have to remember as I still have the baseball card carrier that you defaced writing "Ryan is Cute" (how embarrassing but funny that I had to use that for years after I tried forever with black marker to color over it, lol) I can go on forever as there is just so many memories, so many. Until we see eachother again, God Bless

“ Ryan, I miss you so. The pain I feel cannot be explained or expressed in words. Your passing is such a big loss for so many people. Aunt Sharyn is right....our family will never be the same. I hope and pray to the Lord you are in a better place and at peace now. Ryan, you and I were something special. When we were kids, we were closest in age and you chose to befriend me. That bond only grew stronger as we became adults and had children of our own. Distance and family responsibilities kept us apart more than I would've liked, but I never stopped thinking of you....not for one minute. When I was struggling, you were there for me and always gave me sound advice with the calm of your voice. I am so grateful for you Ryan. I can still hear you now. I hope your voice stays clear in my heart and mind forever. Donna, Danielle and our entire family were blessed to have you in our lives. Now, we must all take comfort that we have another angel watching over us. Ryan, you will never be forgotten. I love you very much.

My beautiful Ryan. Our loving family is forever changed. My heart is so broken I'm not sure how to mend it. My only comfort comes from knowing that you are with your parents. Rest with them and Grampa Willis. May God bless and keep you always.....Love, AS

Our world will forever be changed without you in it. Our loss is heaven's gain. Be at peace my littlest "brother" in the arms of Mom and Dad, until we meet again....Aunt Renee and UB

“ The one thing I will always remember about Ryan is the smile that he always wore on his face. I pray that Ryan has found peace and his family and friends will too. May the wonderful memories comfort those feeling this terrible loss at this difficult time. Sending love and support to Donna a woman who has always been an inspiration to me and her baby girl Danielle.
