

Sandra M. (Castelli) Corridori

November 27, 1939 - September 3, 2013

Mrs. Sandra M. (Castelli) Corridori, age 73, passed away unexpectedly at the St. Elizabeth Medical Center with the support of her loving family by her side. Born in Utica on November 27, 1939, Sandra was the daughter of the late Phillip and Esther (Dwyer) Castelli. Raised and educated locally, she was a graduate of T.R. Proctor High School/Class of 1957. On November 7, 1970 she wed Patrick "Pat" Corridori with whom she shared 42 years in a marriage graced with common values and regard for each other, setting a great example to the generations that followed.

If you closed your eyes to remember Sandra, you would hear unforgettable laughter and an amazing and genuine sense of humor. She was a confident woman, a wonderful mother, and an even better grandmother. Their family home at Sylvan Beach was Sandra's haven. It was a little piece of heaven in nature's bounty of beauty and peace. And the door was always open with hospitality.

Sandra is survived by her husband, Pat; her sons and daughters-in-law, Al and Angela Valeriano of Frankfort, Philip and Terese Valeriano of Baldwinsville, and Patrick and Gina Corridori of N. Utica; and her grandchildren, Alaina Valeriano, Aleese Valeriano; Danielle Valeriano, Vincent Valeriano; Patrick Corridori, and Gino Corridori. She also leaves her sisters and brother-in-law, Shirley Catera, and Karen and George Mender, all of Frankfort. Sandra was blessed with the love of her niece, Cheryl Cristallo, who was like the daughter she never had; and many wonderful friends, especially acknowledging Kathy Ulrich, Marge Scharf, and John Nole. She was predeceased by her sister and brother-in-law, Phyllis "Ish" and Joseph "Click" Calicchia; her brother-in-law, Michael Catera; her in-laws, Doris and Alexander "Luxy" Karathnas, and Marie and Salvatore DePalma; and her close friend, Amy Hanson.

The family gathered at a private time to commemorate Sandra's life. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend her funeral service and Celebration of Life which will commence on Thursday afternoon at 1:00 at Historic Old St. John's Church where her Mass of Christian Burial will be offered by Rev. John Buehler. The family will receive visitors at the conclusion of Mass. Those wishing to express an act of kindness in lieu of flowers may make a donation to the American Heart Association; envelopes will be available at the service.

Arrangements have been entrusted to the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc. 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave.

“ Sandra's laugh always made me laugh as well. She always had a kind loving word to share with all. She welcomed my family as her own and for that I am very grateful. God bless and welcome her to His eternal kingdom.
The city does not need the sun or the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gives it light, and the Lamb is its lamp.

“ Aunt Sandra was a wonderful person who shared her gifts of love and laughter with all. I have always admired and respected her deep love and commitment to Uncle Pat, her sons, and grandchildren. I have so many great memories of summer days spent swimming in their pool and eating great food in "the barn."

Aunt Sandra loved Christmas, especially seeing it through a child's eyes. She sent my family a Christmas card each year and always wrote a message to our sons reminding them to "be good, boys... Santa's watching!"

I will remember Aunt Sandra's love and miss her dearly. I know there is a huge celebration in heaven to welcome her home. My love and condolences to Uncle Pat, Al & Ang, Phil & Terese, Patrick & Gina and their children.

“ Sandy was a great sister in law who was thoughtful enough to bake her wonderful chocolate cake for me and my 3 best friends in high school whenever I asked her to do so. Till this day 50 years later we still share those memories of her laughter, her love, and her delicious cake. Love Richard
