“ When I was Chaplain at the Oneida Center a couple of years ago, Sam came to Mass every Monday afternoon. He was always early for Church and was very reverent. He sang all the hymns and made all the responses. When we opened up the Mass for prayer intentions he always prayed for his brother Rock. He not only knew the tenets of his faith, but also practiced them. He was a very good man. And so I pray that his soul and the soul of all the faithfully departed may rest in peace... Amen!
