Also left to mourn are her sisters and brother-in-law, Chris and Richard Pennebaker, Patty Malone, and Kimberly Malone; her brother, Bill Malone; many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles, in-laws Paulina and Danny Macko, and Anthony and Michelle Calenzo; and her many dear and cherished friends. She was predeceased by her mother-in-law, Paulina (Sercer) Calenzo.

The family is grateful to the nurses and staff of the St. Elizabeth Medical Center for the care and attention given to Terry.

“ Aunt Terry, It's still hard to believe that you are gone. I will miss the phone calls from you, telling me to be strong & to carry on with my schooling. I can only hope that I can have as big as a heart as you do, and that my nursing career can be as great as yours!!! The trip out there to NY will be the BEST trip I will forever remember. I am deeply saddened that we didnt get as many memories together, but I promise to keep your memory alive every time I hold hands with a patient of mine!!!! I LOVE YOU AND WILL FOREVER MISS YOU!!!!!!

“ Terry was a loving and caring friend to many. I feel blessed to have been a part of her life, and all that God called me to during her last days here on earth. She has a new home now and I can only imagine how awesome it is to walk beside Jesus in the peace and comfort of Heaven. May all receive Jesus Christ, as their Saviour and Lord of their Lives, so that they, also, will have the assurance of Heaven bound. John 3:16: For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have everlasting life.

“ Terry will be missed by many. Some of them are her friends and co-workers, some would be her family and others would be those whose lives she touched as a recipient of her care and caring. She always strived to do well for those she took care of. Now she is with the Lord and He is taking care of her. Her pain is no longer holding her here with us. May she have her angel wings and fly with the best.
