

Vanessa Janelle "Nessa" (Moore) Williams

October 5, 1989 - March 4, 2024

UTICA – Vanessa Janelle "Nessa" (Moore) Williams, age 34, passed away surrounded by her loving family after a brief illness on Monday, March 4, 2024. Though her departure leaves behind broken hearts, her spirit will continue to live on in the cherished memories she created with those she loved.

Vanessa was born in Utica, New York, on October 5, 1989, to James E. Williams III and Rochelle Moore-Nichols. She attended Utica City Schools during her youth before relocating to Decatur, Georgia, where she enrolled at Columbia High School. Vanessa later returned to Utica where she earned her GED at the Utica BOCES in June of 2013.

Upon Vanessa's return to Utica, she met Anthony Rivera, and they embarked on a 15-year journey together. Their commitment to each other and shared wisdom enriched their lives, creating cherished memories. Anthony will forever cherish Vanessa's rituals and the profound love they shared.

Vanessa's career journey began as a Resident Care Assistant at Willow Park Home Health, where her dedication to meeting others' needs led to success. She then advanced to a promotion at the Rescue Mission, where she formed meaningful connections while working with individuals with intellectual disabilities. In March 2021, Vanessa transitioned to a position with New York State DDSO, where she continued her dedicated and compassionate work with individuals with developmental disabilities until her passing. Her unwavering commitment and caring approach left a lasting impact on those she served.

Growing up, Vanessa loved playing Double Dutch with her friends and cousins. She also loved to sing. Her most recent favorite songs were Usher and HOVA "H 2 the O V." MARCY PROJECTS!! Vanessa, also known as the "Pandora Queen," always had a music playlist ready to lift spirits. Vanessa had a contagious laugh that would make you laugh so hard that you would forget what you were laughing about because you'd be caught up in the sound of her laughter. Vanessa was shy but not one to be played with, and despite her lively nature, Vanessa also had a reserved side. Always a "vibe seeker," she would feed off whatever vibe people would throw out.

Vanessa absolutely adored fall, especially because of Halloween - her absolute favorite holiday. She appreciated watching the leaves turn colors and the anticipation of getting ready for Halloween. Decorating her home with just the right décor was a joy for her, and she treasured every moment of binge-watching scary movies and going trick-or-treating with her daughters, creating lasting memories filled with meaning and love.

Vanessa had a beautiful smile and she was a versatile individual. Reflecting on her caring and honest nature, she found joy on sunny and rainy days. She had an interest in astrology and the afterlife.

As the cherished "photo queen" of the family, Vanessa often captured moments and created lasting memories with her loved ones. She enjoyed amusement parks, rides, and greasy food. Vanessa was a conservative, who stood on her business.

Vanessa was passionate about food, but her mother's cooking was the best.

She recently enjoyed baking with her daughters, especially chocolate cakes. Vanessa also had a flair for hair, which created a unique bond with her sister. Vanessa had advantages in being the Guinea Pig.

Vanessa's tight bond with her mother and sister kept them in close contact all the time. Having a special time to catch up on their business and sometimes other people's business was called "TEA TIME SESSIONS." These cherished moments allowed them to catch up and bond without interruption. Vanessa had a special love for her grandmothers and enjoyed spending time with them. Times spent with her grandmother Frannie helped her develop her love for God. But her greatest love of all was her family. Anthony, Rayana, Myana, and Seleh.

Vanessa leaves to mourn her mother, Rochelle Moore-Nichols, her father, James E/Hillary Williams, and her stepfather, James Nichols, who affectionately referred to her as his "Bear." “ There will never be a day that goes by that I won't miss you. To say how proud and lucky I was to have you as my best friend, is a severe understatement. What I would do to go backwards. Back to playing Barbies, rollerskating, riding bikes, playing at the park, sleep overs, birthday parties, working together, dinners, and overall just having my daily morning and late night conversations with you. I love you. May you rest in peace.. my beautiful angel.
