

Mrs. Wanda J. (Juskowich) Ostrosky

January 23, 1927 - March 12, 2015

Mrs. Wanda J. (Juskowich) Ostrosky, age 88, went home to join loved ones who have gone before her as she passed away on Thursday, March 12, 2015 at the Faxton-St. Luke's Healthcare Center.

Born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania on January 23, 1927, Wanda was the daughter of the late Stanley and Amelia (Szwedko) Juskowich. She was raised and educated in Pittsburgh. In 1952 she was united in marriage to Frank Ostrosky, a 21 year union that brought the blessing of six children. Frank passed away in 1973.

Wanda was a wonderful matriarch who maintained her home and accomplished her daily activities while tending to her growing children and her family's needs. She was caring, compassionate, and loving, always welcoming visitors to her home and always offering a culinary treat before they left. She was blessed with a unique sense of humor that left a lasting impression on everyone in her circle of life. Wanda's strong will and determination allowed her to overcome any obstacle that life would place upon her. Her favorite pastimes were cooking and shopping with her loved ones.

Wanda is survived by her children, Linda and Robert Martire of PA, Sheila Hurd and Samuel Chandler of Ilion, daughter-in-law Marion Ostrosky of Frankfort, Charles Ostrosky of Bridgewater, Beverly and John Doolen of Frankfort, Mary Ostrosky and Andrea Buck of Utica; many grandchildren, many great-grandchildren, and special friends, Carm, and Marie.

Wanda was predeceased by her cherished son, Frank Ostrosky, daughter-in-law, Rosemary Ostrosky, and grandson, Jason Ostrosky.

Visitation will be held Saturday afternoon from 12:30-2:30 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. Wanda's funeral service and Celebration of Life will commence on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the funeral home. Interment will take place in Calvary Cemetery at the convenience of the family.

“ Gram,
I miss you so much, I miss that I can't hug you, see you or talk with you like I did before. But the memories I have of you will continue to fill the empty space I have in my heart until my time comes to join you. I know you are in a better place , no longer suffering & you are now with our loved ones that have been waiting for you.

You were the one who kept this family together. Your memories will continue to keep us united, strong, and laughing together. There is a special piece of you in each one of us that will continue to carry out your legacy , who you were & who you would want us to be. You are unique, one in a million, you will never be forgotten.
I love you, we all love you

“ God's most precious work of art is the warmth and love of a grandma's heart" I know your in a better place Grandma, but I'll always miss you and dad so much. I know dad is so happy to see you! I'm grateful that not only did I get to see you but my husband and my babies got to see you one last time before you went to God. I love you Grandma.

Love,

Kelley

“ Grama,
You were always a wonderful grandmother to me. I have many, many happy memories growing up with you in my life. I know without you I never would exist and my father one of the greatest people in my life wouldn't of been the man he was without you raising him. For that im eternally grateful. You should leave this world with a smile at all you have created and all that loved you. Forever rest in peace.

Love,

Frankie

“"The moment that you left me, my heart was split in two. One side was filled with memories; the other side died with you. I often lay awake at night when the world is fast asleep, and take a walk down memory lane with tears upon my cheek. Remembering you is easy, I do it everyday; but missing you is a heartache that never goes away. I hold you tightly within my heart and there you will remain; you see life has gone on without you, but will never be the same."

“Gram,

Over the last year and a half that I've gotten to know you, you've made such an impact on my life. You always made me feel so welcomed and loved. I'm so glad you got to meet and see Harper grow over the last 6 months. You could see how much you loved her every time you looked at her. I know you're watching over her and all of us from heaven.

“ Grama O, it's a blessing knowing that so much of who I am comes from you. I looked around at our crazy family this weekend and it made me smile thinking how we all inherited your wild side. When I get sad I listen for your laugh and I smile. I picture you in heaven as you were on your best days, and there were far more good than bad. I can't begin to tell you what I wouldn't give to be 5 again dancing around your living room with brittany and aunt Mimi. The time we shared made all of our lives that much more special. You're a spitfire gram, you're strength this past year still amazes me & I love you more than words. I cherish our memories and I thank you for who I am.

*Until we meet again..

“ Gram,
I hope you liked what I read at your service. I could have wrote 100 pages about what an incredible woman you were. Whenever I find myself upset over missing you, I'll just think of all the laughs we've shared. As hard as it is to not be selfish wishing you were still here, I know everyone up in heaven waiting for you must have needed you more now. I'll love you forever and I know I'll see you again.

I bet it's so nice up in heaven since you arrived.

“ Gram,

I had something prepared for your service but I didn't read it.

I am standing upon the foreshore. A ship at my side opens her white sails in the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength and I stand and watch her until at length she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come down to mingle with each other. Then someone at my side says "There! she is gone!" "Gone where?" "Gone from my sight, that's all." She is just as large in mast and spar and hull as ever she was when she left my side. Her diminished size is in me, not in her. Just at that moment when someone at my side says "There! She's gone!" there are other eyes watching her coming and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, "Here she comes!"

---Henry Van Dyke

I know that when I saw you leaving that uncle frank and the rest of our family in heaven saw you coming and were so happy to see you. I love you, and I will always think of you and how lucky I am to have had such an amazing grandmother with me for 25 years. I know that you'll always be there watching over us.

Love,

*Dear Mum,
I want you to know that I love you more than anything in this world.
When you got sick last year, it just tore my heart apart. I hope you were happy with the love and care that I gave you. We've been through a lot but we made the best of it. I enjoyed taking care of you and I know you were happy to be home. I just can't believe you're gone. I would have loved and cared for you forever, but you are in the arms of the angels now.
Forever you will be in my heart until we meet again.
Your loving daughter,
