

William C. "Bill" Jabour

November 13, 1940 - June 28, 2007

Mr. William C. "Bill" Jabour, age 66, of Utica, passed away on Thursday, June 28, 2007, at the Faxton-St. Luke's Healthcare Center with his family by his side.

Born in Utica on November 13, 1940, Bill was the son of the late Charles and Sadie (Abdulla) Jabour. He was raised and educated locally and attended Utica Free Academy.

Bill enjoyed his lifelong occupation as a cook at Marcy State Psychiatric Center, where he developed lasting friendships with his co-workers. Bill was blessed with a spirited and fun-loving personality. He took pleasure in collecting baseball memorabilia. He was a communicant of St. Louis Gonzaga Church where he volunteered his time and supported church functions.

Bill is survived by his sister, Marion Kempf of Utica who also mourns the loss of her husband, and Bill's brother-in-law Oscar F. Kempf, who passed away on June 27, 2007; his sister, Amelia Jabour with whom he shared a home; his brother, Anthony Jabour of Utica; his nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and aunts, Stella Joseph, and Mary Jabour; and his in-law, Marion Jabour.

The family extends gratitude to the 3rd floor Allen Calder wing and the Intensive Care Unit at Faxton-St. Luke's Healthcare Center for their kindness, compassion, and attentiveness; and Fr. Bassam for his visits and prayers.

Visitation will be held Sunday (today) from 2:00–5:00 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. The Prayer of Incense will be offered on Sunday afternoon at 4:30 at the funeral home. Bill's funeral service will commence on Monday morning at 8:30 from the funeral home and at 9:30 at St. Louis Gonzaga Church, where the Divine Liturgy of the Faithful Departed will be celebrated by Father Bassam Saade, Pastor. Entombment will follow at Calvary Mausoleum.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you at this very difficult time.

"Bill was the calm in my life. He was like an uncle who watched me grow up. I don't remember the first time I met him because I was that young. I only know that whenever he was around, the world felt safe, and calm. He always made me laugh. We have lost a wonderful person in this lifetime. " Bill till we meet again.
