“ I have been thinking about what to say to you, It is hard to put 41 years of friendship, into a few words. When we were young teenagers together, we did some crazy things, then I met your older brother, and soon after became your sister-in law. So we were all young adults together, and we did some crazy things. We lost track of each other for a while, but of course we all found each other again, and did some crazy things. Then we all buckled down and raised our families, and have beautiful grandchildren, and you came to the house and we talked about all the crazy things we did. You and your brother would go hunting, and made new memories, you will be missed, greatly by me by my husband, and by all those who knew you. Can you say hi to my mom for me, thanks bill, Just know that you will not be forgotten,
Love from jo your sister in law###imported-begin###Joann Alsante###imported-end##

“ I have heard so much about you. And have wished we got to meet. The love you had for your family, friends and the great outdoors. Eather Hunting, Fishing or Camping. After reading and talking to other family members. You were the man that would take his shirt off his back if someone else needed it. You are looking down at your family with a smile on your face knowing that your children are coming together. I am so sorry we never were able to share a camping experience with you. I am your daughter inlaw Tammy Rae Alsante William Jr.'s Wife. You will always be in our hearts.##imported-begin##Tammy Rae Alsante##imported-end##

“ Hey pop,

Im not sure where to start. As I sit here with tear filled eyes, wishing I could have been a bigger part of your life

So Many times you have been in my thoughts, in my heart, and all the Family that I didn't have the chance to know until now.

Im sorry I never had the chance to be a bigger part of your life, and share in the many good times. Like when Haley & Jared came to meet you for the first time & you took them fishing, That is something that they still remember & they always will Pop. I want to know all my family and hold all of them close to us have everyone in our lives to enjoy and get to know. I love you Pop. I will do what I can to keep this family together, talking, and getting together seeing everyone as much as we can.##imported-begin##William Everett Alsante Jr##imported-end##

“ You walked back into my life When I was 28, after being gone for 25 years...

Huh, figures it would have been in a bar.

Though all that time had passed and I had been a child when you left, I knew it was you in an instant...

Having lost a son myself, I knew the pain you walked with those 25 years. And only you understood my own pain.

I walked up to you, as you were walking up to me, and time for us began anew...

Wasn't long before We were meeting at that bar once a week, then to your home I would find myself going.

Your kindness and understanding merged with your unjudgemental ways.

More than two years passed and our relationship grew profound, as it should have been.

And when my life took a turn as it does every so often, you were there to pick me up. Shared your home. And though you were HARD to live with, your love for me showed in every lecture, walk, and talk. We spend alot of time together during those next couple of years. Both of us more than happy to catch up in a couple of years, the lifetime that we had missed. You even managed to teach me a trick or two!

Chris was right, your hugs were warm and made everything feel better with the crazy world around us.

I wish you had met more of my Household family... YOUR family... YOUR newest Grandchildren.

We should have had more time old man, fills me with regret that I let much time pass between us without giving you a visit... I had found a family and it took way too much of my time. And I thought of you nearly every day, but I always thought we had more time...

I guess we should NEVER take family for granted, thinking We've plenty of time.

*One last lesson from you for me?
Well its a good one, I shall never forget...*

*I miss you so much...
I love you my Father.
I will see you again one day, and we will smile together again...##imported-begin##Sean H. Alsante##imported-end##*

“ Well I will start off by saying you truley were the most lovable person that I have ever met! We have shared so many laughs and cries together...(mostly me....) and partied together alot. I still can't believe that you are gone... my bestfriend and "POPS" ! I will always cherrish the memories of all those times we sat down around the fire pit and talked about nonsense. Just being around you made me feel so protected and comfortable! You will live on through your grandson...he is just like you!!! He loves the outdoors just as much as you loved the outdoors.... Camping was amazing with you.... you always knew how to have a good time and never let a little rain get you down! When I visit our usual spot I will know you are there with me in spirit...watching over me and laughing at the stupid little things that I always do!! You will never be forgotten....and you will always be missed! I will see you again, until then I love you and miss you very much!!!! Love always and Forever Tina and Brandon##imported-begin##Tina##imported-end##

“ To me you were a very kind, lovable, enjoyable and spirited person. You were also a great friend to everyone whom had the pleasure. You accepted others for who they were and you weren't the type to have someone around, if they didn't do the same. For those of us that went camping and canoeing with you, we got to see the fun side of you. You truly loved the outdoors as much as you loved your children. I will miss you my friend, but I know you were a good man which only makes it harder. Until the day the good lord brings us all back to the divine light, be watchful over us, so that we may be good to one another. Semper fi marine, Semper fi.##imported-begin##Ivory R. “ Billy, you were one of the closest friends I had in my life, and saying goodbye after not saying hello for far to long is a weight I will carry all my life. we worked, partied, hunted, fished. We were there for each other no matter what. My best memory is you, me and Paulie at Hinkley below the dam when you fell in the water, I heard crash ,splash I looked and all I saw was your head sticking out of the water. I panicked, before i could do anything you passed me and paul in a blur all i heard was oooooooooo get the tackle box and the worms. once i realized you were alright. i have to say i have never laughed so hard without chemical help. i can say without being embarrassed that it left my jeans wet! when you get to heaven say hello to jb, chief , dave andrews and ronnie woods tell them we still speak of them with a smile on our face, as we will you. We will miss you alot...rest in peace....Love Smitty and Sue, Robert and Steven###imported-begin##Smitty and Sue###imported-end##

“ I'll miss you just isn't enough, time to think and reminisce. All the times we've shared in four different states together. Camping at Hinkley, fishing in Oswego, hunting; sitting in the cold waiting the deer we never shot but it was the moments we shared together that I'll remember most. I could go on & on with those. You had a big heart and you'll always be in my heart. Love you, your brother Tim.###imported-begin##Tim Szczygiel###imported-end##

“ You were my father, a good man and my best friend. You taught me to enjoy so many things in life..you taught me how to shoot both rifles and bow's, you taught me how to fish and to enjoy the wonders of the outdoors while camping. but most of all you taught me how to be a better man and a better father to my own son..to take the time to enjoy all the little things that we together rarely had the chance to do.

I will miss so much of you in everything i do, in everyday of my life there are so many things that remind me of you. the smiles we would share after a joke, or the closeness of a conversation shared next to a warm fire overlooking the lake at night.

Before everything in my life, the thing i will miss Dad, was the warmth of your Hugs....that strength and security i felt so many times, helped me through so many tough and impossible times in my life.

But now it is my time to be the father, and to continue to share all these things with your beautiful grandson. Please always be my strength, and guide my way.

I love you Dad,...Forever Your Son
